BLOCK OF VOTES

Reapportionment Measure
Gains in House

Pennsylvania's Delegation
Will Give Support

California Leading Fight to Obtain Passage

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Prospects for passage of reapportionment legislation brightened today when the Pennsylvania delegation at a caucus voted unanimously to back the Fenn bill which comes before the House Thursday.

Last session the Keystone State's eighteen votes against the reapportionment bill, with the result it was beaten by 31 votes. If other delegations stand as they did then the action of the Pennsylvania apparently insures victory for the Fenn measure in the lower house.

However, the line-up is said to have shifted considerably and leaders in the fight to reallocate House seats are still exerting every effort to round up votes. They are confident but not certain of winning.

CHECK SITUATION

Advocates of reapportionment are to meet tomorrow to check the situation and determine their legislative strategy. California Representative, including Engelbright, the assistant whip of the House; Craft of Los Angeles, and Evans of Chula Vista, are among those making reports on the progress that has been made toward insuring passage of the reapportionment bill. California, which stands to gain six seats in Congress, is leading the fight against Michigan, which will gain four; Ohio, which picks up three, and other states which will have increased representation in the lower house if reapportionment legislation is put through.

RANKIN FIGHTING

The House Rules Committee today reported out a rule under which the Fenn bill will have three hours of general debate. This will be followed by reading of the measure for amendments under the five-minute rule, but a vote the same day is assured.

Representative Rankin, Democrat of Mississippi, made the minority report today and took refuge chiefly behind the fact Congress has not yet been officially censured. He demanded that action be delayed until after the 1930 figures have been made available.

Review of Day in Congress

The lower house decided to take up the reapportionment bill on Thursday.

The House Ways and Means Committee continued its hearing on tariff revision of chemical products.

The compromise agreement for the early ratification of the Kellogg peace treaty collapsed in the Senate.

The election contest against Representative Beck, Republican, Pennsylvania, was sent, the House voting to send him.

Commissioner Burke of the Indian Bureau was asked to prove his charges against Senator Pine of Oklahoma by the Senate Indian Affairs Committee.

Chairman Robinson of the Federal Radio Commission urged the House Merchant Marine Committee to continue the committee's life for another year.

BUDGET GIVEN TO LEGISLATURE

Deaths of multimillionaires and interest received from gasoline tax monies loaned to banks, funds have flowed into the treasury like water from the melting snows of the Sierra.

Inheritance taxes received from estates during the past two years, it was learned, exceeded estimates by $4,000,000. The Henry Huntington estate alone, it is reported, contributed $4,000,000. Another fortunate circumstance was interest received on gasoline tax monies. The income from this source exceeded estimates and many millions lay in banks, drawing interest, instead of being applied to highway funds, was placed in the general fund where it was used to swell the surplus.

Not until the last few weeks have highway funds been expended. Southern California roads in any degree comparable to the amount of gasoline-tax money that motorists in the south have been paying in the past two years. The fact that the state has been working for the State's general fund, according to legislators, is a good stroke of business, but not so much for the Southern California motorist who foots the bill.

BUILDING REPORT GIVEN

Included in the budget is a report on the two-year building program fostered by Gov. Young. He stated that a census survey of all state institutions, population trends and housing has been made. Charts are included, showing that by prolonging the time limit by one year in the State's population since 1907 by 1947 California's population will reach 11,880,000. He urged that a building program of permanent improvements be founded upon this basis.

The proposed expenditures for permanent improvements in this biennium is $7,500,000, nearly $1,000,000 less than the previous biennium.

The highway budget proposes the expenditure of $75,000,000 on construction of new roads. These projects are all outlined in the budget and are in conformity with the program of the two-year plan whereby the money is divided according to northern and southern counties.

In the educational budget, which includes the University of California, full consideration for the University of California at Los Angeles is not given, due to the fact that it is deemed best to await the outcome of the proposal to site the present site on Vermont avenue.

Plan to Present
Bill for Revised
Court Law Told

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Plans for submitting to the present Legislature bills designed to simplify practice and facilitate operation of the California courts, especially by increasing jurisdiction of the municipal and justice courts, were announced today by the Judicial Council.

The announcement says Senator Irwin of Sacramento will handle the bills in the State Senate. The changes to be suggested are the result of a two-year study of the operation of California courts and are both to procedure and jurisdiction.

Bootleg Shooting

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Four men were indicted by the Federal grand jury tonight in connection with the assault operation of the Visitation Valley liquor still, uncovered last Friday night when Police Corporal James J. Muldoon was wounded in a shotgun trap.

The four, each named for its internal revenue laws by the operation of a still and on sixteen counts involving conspiracy to violate the same laws, are: Victor Pardini; Aurelia Pardini; Casimiro Cardini; and Ralph Baisi.

Due to the Governor's illness, the address was read.

Alameda Proposes to Lift

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Introduction of 228 bills covering about every imaginable subject, marked today's session of the California Legislature, its first business day.

The legislators apparently intend to introduce about as many bills in this session as in the past, regardless of Gov. Young's suggestion that fewer measures would be more acceptable.

Of the 123 bills introduced in the Senate one signed by three of the San Francisco delegation was designed to give control of the Port of San Francisco to the municipality. A similar bill was introduced in the Assembly.

OLD AGE PENSIONS
Another, introduced by Senator Murphy of the Bay City, provided for an old age pension for totally dependent persons 70 years of age or older who have resided in California fifteen years.

The whole Iowa delegation in Congress today formally endorsed Dante Pierce, editor of a number of farm journals, for Secretary of Agriculture. Tomorrow morning Senator Brockport of the same State will call for the same purpose.

These Iowa bills had plausible explanations for Pierce's action in 1924 in bolting the regular Republican nominee and throwing his support to La Follette and they told Mr. Hoover that the appointment of Pierce to the post of Secretary of Agriculture, who came back into the Republican fold last autumn.

AMENDMENTS OFFERED
The Private Employment Agency Act comes in for several proposed amendments in bills submitted by Senator Lyon of Los Angeles and Senator Fenton of San Francisco, and two bills regulating the practice of nursing and the practice of medicine. The latter act, introduced by Senator Fenton, is for education of nurses and better care of the sick; to provide for and regulate the examination and registration of graduate nurses, etc. Both are substituting measures.

Chief among bills introduced in the lower house was a measure proposed by Assemblyman Bill of Carpinteria calling for repeal of an act passed in 1921 authorizing oil drilling on State-owned lands. The blanket measure was introduced, Bill said, in order to gain time enough to work out a constructive interpretation of the law which would not endanger beaches, parks and other spots of scenic appeal.

A bill which would enforce the creation of a trust fund in consignments of agricultural products was introduced by Assemblyman J. H. Brown of San Francisco. Under the terms of the bill commission merchants would be forced to keep records of the sale of consignments and to submit them to the State for audit. The bill would also subject to check only in payment of commissions, expenses and return to the grower.

AUTO DRIVERS' BELIEF

Jesperen also introduced a measure to absolve automobile owners from responsibility in accidents by failing to protect owners of motor vehicles from "friendly auto."

Respect for the law, endangered among students in secondary and high schools, was the subject of a bill introduced by Assemblyman Bishop of Alameda in introducing a bill calling for the repeal of the present law forbidding existence of cash bonds societies in such institutions. Bishop said that fraternities and secret societies are in existence in defiance of the law and recommending that the law be repealed so that they might be brought under supervision of school authorities.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Selection of a site for a cold storage terminal on the San Francisco waterfront will be made by a committee of ten appointed by Maj. C. L. Tilden, president of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners. W. J. Mitchell was designated chairman.

The other nine members are representatives of shipping, agriculture and export firms. The committee will meet tomorrow to study the merits of the Mission Rock site favored by Maj. Tilden.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Senate investigation of charges that foreign interests are taking over control of many American newspapers with a view to exercising a monopoly on printing paper was asked in a resolution offered today by Senator Schall, Republican, Minnesota.

INAUGURAL PLAN APPROVED
Hoover Indorses Arrangement for Simple Ceremony, Including Parade But Without Grand Ball

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—One phase of the speculation that swirled about the return of Herbert Hoover was definitely quieted today when he gave his approval to the March 4 inauguration plans—a simple affair.

Beyond the official ceremony of oath-taking at the Capitol the program calls for a parade chiefly of military units. The inaugural ball of other days will be omitted.

Hoover should intervene vigorously, it follows that the Seventieth Congress was doing nothing and that everything will wait on the Seventy-first.

BORAH AT BREAKFAST
Senator Borah, who has cried loudest and longest for an extra session, was the first of the day's visitors to get the President-elect's point of view, for the Idaho Senator was a breakfast guest of the Hoover home on 8 street.

Although Mr. Hoover is not yet President his visitors have put into practice the inference that a President-elect does not quarrel with his cabinet and those who questioned Senator Borah later in the day had to draw conclusions from the manner in which the President-elect was received. He is now convinced that his battle for the special session has been won, and there will be no more discussion of the matter.

Mr. Hoover's bill through before March 4.

The whole Iowa delegation in Congress today formally endorsed Dante Pierce, editor of a number of farm journals, for Secretary of Agriculture. Tomorrow morning Senator Brockport of the same State will call for the same purpose.

These Iowa bills had plausible explanations for Pierce's action in 1924 in bolting the regular Republican nominee and throwing his support to La Follette and they told Mr. Hoover that the appointment of Pierce to the post of Secretary of Agriculture, who came back into the Republican fold last autumn.

OTHERS IN RACE
Pierce is not the only contender for this post, however, and during the day Mr. Hoover was asked to consider the qualifications of Renick W. Dunlap, Nebraska, who is the son of the late Secretary of Agriculture, and of J. R. Howard, former president of the Farm Bureau.

It took some of the celebrated "hot shots" to make through today's engagement list without the aid of a few traffic police. The Mayflower elevators seemed to be discharging stalemate and near-stalemate every other minute. Besides those already enumerated, the day's visitors were:

starting work shortly on the pending cruiser-construction bill.

REPUBLICANS IN ATTACK

Meanwhile, the treaty came under assault from the Republican side as Senator Moses, New Hampshire; Robinson, Indiana, and Blaine, Wisconsin, demanded interpretive reservations to American adherence.

From the Democratic side loud words of endorsement for the treaty, couched in terms of doubt as to its validity, were heard from Senator Wagner, New York, and Senator Shippen, Texas, announced their support of the pact as a "step in the right direction."

Senator Hale and Watson, who told of legislation passed for the first time in the extra session, Col. U. S. Grant III, and E. F. Coladay, with additional details about the inauguration plans.

Representative Rogers of Massachusetts, who discussed foreign trade and commercial aviation for half an hour, but who emphatically denied he had made any Cabinet suggestions.

Long Beach's

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (AP)—The cornerstone of the new Tammany Hall near Union Square was laid today by John R. Voorhis, 99-year-old Grand Sachem of the Tammany society.

Among those present were former Gov. Smith, Mayor Walker and other city officials, Tammany leaders and members of the Tammany society. George W. Olvany, leader of Tammany, held a reception to district leaders and the public after the ceremony.

It is expected the building will be finished in time for dedication April 13, the anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth. The new building is at Fourth Avenue and Seventeenth street, three blocks from the old headquarters in Fourteenth street.

TEXT FOR TAX ACT REVEALED

Tentative Program of State Commission Aired

Exemption Section Looked on as Important

Los Angeles Man Scheduled to Administer Law

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8. (AP)—The tentative text of legislation the California Tax Commission expects to recommend to the Legislature in the amendment No. 3 adopted by the people at the November election was made public today.

The amendment provides for a 4 percent tax on the income of banks, financial, mercantile, manufacturing and business corporations, a franchise tax on corporations and a tax on intangible securities.

Probably the most important section of the proposed legislation provides for exemption from the 4 percent tax of every corporation 50 percent of whose gross income is derived from rentals from real properties owned or controlled by it.

EXEMPTION HELD FAIR

The commission declared it believed the exemption fair in that the constitutional amendment provides for an offset against the income tax up to 90 percent of the State levy for taxes paid on personal property. Personal property is deemed to include, as any available machinery and equipment used for trade or manufacture and not essential for support of the building.

The commission recommended that the income and franchise tax be administered by a commission and the State Board of Equalization, an elective body. The commission has been agreed upon by the Legislature, a Los Angeles accountant.

INCOME DEFINED

Gross income is defined in the legislation as including gains, profits and income derived from the business in form of compensation for services, as interest, rentals, commissions, brokerage or other fees and all interest received from Federal, State, municipal or other bonds and from certain dividends received on bonds.

Legislation relative to this taxation problem is expected to be the most important item before the Legislature, inasmuch as it will be introduced as an emergency measure the decision is expected to be made during the first half of the session.

INDIAN SCOUTS NEED
Mexican and American Authorities Confer on Send Help to Band Seeking Apaches

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Jan. 8. (AP)—Authorities of this border town, where the Sonoran Desert meets the international boundary, conferred today on means of getting word to the Mexican authorities to send help to a band of Apache Indians which kidnapped a woman and two children two years ago.

The Fimbres party was believed to be in the Sonoran country, in the foothills of the mountains in which the Apaches are fortified. Beyond Sonora there are no Mexican outposts, and the wild region is untraveled by any except Indians.

Local authorities considered sending reinforcements to the daring Mexican band when it was reported along the border that the Apaches had deserted their stronghold deep in the rugged mountains and had come down to the foothills for a less severe climate.

Fimbres was authorized by Gov. Fausto Topete of Sonora to wipe out the Apaches, who for years have swept down from their lair to commit depredations on Mexicans. In October, 1926, the band accosted the Fimbres family in a wild section of Sonora. Mr. Fimbres, and carried away a son, Francisco Fimbres, believed that his son is living, but is being reared to take a place in the banding band of Indians.

FAME OF LINDBERGH REACHES HUMBLE TURKS OF BLACK SEA

KILIOS (Turkey) Jan. 8. (AP)— Humble, illiterate Black Sea fishermen revere the name of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. This discovery was made by his mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh, when she visited this little Turkish seaport with a group of teachers from the American College at Constantinople, where she has been teaching chemistry.
The American women persuaded some of the Turkish fishermen to take them for a sail over the rough Black Sea waters. Pleased by the courtesy of the old sea-dogs and by their skillful management of their craft, Mrs. Lindbergh, who has learned Turkish, told the fishermen

she was as she stepped ashore.
"The mother of Col. Lindbergh" cried the old men, and nearly touched the sand of the beach with their foreheads, so deep were their reverent salutations, while they rent the air with joyful exclaima-tions of "Allah! Allah!"
Their village never has known a newspaper, and these illiterate fishermen could not have read a line even if newspapers existed, but nevertheless the fame of the Lone Eagle has reached their lonely shores.
Mrs. Lindbergh is planning to return to the United States on the 19th inst.

his deputies who attempted to solve the mystery surrounding the finding of a decapitated Mexican's body in that county a year ago, are scheduled to be the first State's witnesses against young Northcott.
The chicken rancher is accused by Sanford Clark, his nephew, of that crime.
The fastest examination so far of prospective jurors in the case followed the failure this morning of a motion to have the accused slayer's trial transferred to another county because the defense asserted, Northcott will be unable to get a fair and unbiased jury here.

COURT'S OPINION

As court opened this morning Norbert Savay, chief counsel for the defense, fired his final gun in an effort to have his client's trial taken from Riverside county. In a long decision, Superior Judge Freeman denied Savay's plea for a change of venue.
"There is no doubt in my mind that the defendant can obtain a fair and impartial trial in this county. I think there are a lot of unthinking people who may of press opinions that the defense naturally will take exception to.
But, as a matter of law, these people will have no opportunity of sitting in judgment on the defendant."
Judge Freeman said in part, when he denied the change of venue.
Northcott sought to take his trial to Orange county. He gave no reason for his choice, however, but inferred that he would be able to get a "fairer jury there."

NORTHCOTT ON STAND

When Northcott took the stand today to aid his counsel in the motion for a change of venue, the youth charged that his life had been threatened.
"A County Jail trustee told me that 'if I don't get you others will.'" Northcott testified when on the stand. His testimony, apparently, failed to impress the court.
As Northcott's counsel completed an impassioned plea for a change of venue, the court declared in no uncertain terms that he did not understand the legal foundation for the motion.
"I don't know yet what this is all about. I wish that you would prepare this motion in regular form so that I will know upon what basis you are making your plea," the court admonished the defense counsel.
After Savay's motion was denied the attorney began the most rapid examination of prospective jurors that so far has marked the trial of the accused slayer of the Senator.
Louis and Nelson Winslow and Walter Collins. In the last named case he is scheduled to go to trial Thursday but probably will get a postponement until the present case is completed.

WOMAN EXCUSED

A woman juror entered the box for the first time today shortly after the noon recess and was followed shortly after by another drawn from the box by Judge Freeman's clerk. The prosecution, however, exercised its second peremp-tory on the last woman called and excused her.
Mrs. Mildred Breese was the only woman in the jury box when court adjourned tonight.

Twenty-two others remain in the second panel drawn yesterday.
These were called today. The first panel was exhausted yesterday forenoon.
At the close of today's session the defense counsel had used thirteen of its twenty peremptory challenges.
The State still has eighteen to use, giving, according to Savay's statement to the court, a decided advantage over the defense. At the conclusion of today's court session
Dep. Dist. Atty. Redwine declared that selection of the jury practically is up to the defense.

"We are ready to proceed immediately and most any jury is satisfactory to us," he stated.
Northcott, who apparently still is defending his defense, held several conferences with his attorney during the questioning of veniremen today.
"I think we will be in a position to accept the jury by Thursday morning," the accused slayer said in the presence of his counsel.

LONDON, Jan. 8. (AP)—A new friendly society, Neighbors, Ltd., has been formed to enable wealthy persons to distribute their fortunes for social purposes.
One of the founders of the society is Viscount Ennismore, 52 years of age, the Socialist son of the Earl of Listerdale. He has renounced his title and says he is practically dis-inherited. Henceforth he intends to take a bed-sitting room in London, live on £2 weekly, and take a philosophy degree.
Under the constitution of the society the members take penny shares and donate £100 for each share. Single men and women members thereupon receive £2 weekly, and married persons £4, plus ten shillings for each dependent child.

hurriedly constructing additional defenses at Forts Virvones and San Juan. They said that troops and at Fort Robore.

It is reported that the Pilcomayo

GEN. BOOTH SENT COUNCIL'S LOVE

Salvation Army Session
Proceeds Slowly

Action Against Commander Behind Locked Door

Assembly Opens With Hymn; President Chosen

SUNBURY-ON-THAMES (Eng.)
Jan. 8. (AP)—Any anticipations that the high council of the Salvation Army, which assembled here today, would reach a quick decision regarding the fitness of Gen. Booth to continue as commander-in-chief, were dispelled. Although three separate sessions were held, the starting of the machinery of the council took up all the time.

Committees were appointed and officers elected. It is said unofficially tonight the real work of the council will begin tomorrow.
As is customary with all proceedings of the army, the meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn
—"Mine to Rise When Thou Dost Call Me." This was followed by prayer and a reading from the Bible. One of the points which may explain the time necessary for organization is the fact that the member of the council is entitled to express his or her views on any subject that may come up. The proceedings respecting the army leadership may, therefore, prove protracted.

PRESIDENT SELECTED

The sixty-three men and women commissioners, selected for their experience in all parts of the army's dominions, met behind locked and guarded doors. Chief-of-Staff Sigmund mounted the dais in the long, oak-paneled conference room promptly at 10:30 a.m. He stood under a portrait of the late Gen.
William Booth, founder of the army, as he opened the meeting which must settle issues on which the whole future of the organization will depend.

Commissioner Hay of New Zealand was elected president at the initial business. His prompt choice is said to have been the result of a previous understanding between the two opposing wings among the commissioners. The fact that he comes from a remote section of the army's territory, will insure, it is thought, that he will be less involved in the personal side of the issues which the council must face.

SYMPATHY SENT BOOTH

On the other hand Hay is said to favor far-reaching reforms in the government of the army and his election as president of the council is considered in some quarters as a final triumph for the reform party.
Aside from the official communique issued from the international headquarters in London this evening, the deliberations of the council are shrouded in deepest secrecy.
Among the noteworthy incidents of the day were the sending by the council of a message of love and sympathy to Gen. Booth and the private conference between Commissioner Laurie, the army's chancellor, of the exchequer; Theodore Kitching, chief editor of the army's publications; Col. Mary Booth and Catherine Booth, daughter of the commander-in-chief.

A high official of the army tonight denied the sending of the message of sympathy to the sick commander-in-chief was an expression of feeling common to them all and that only the sentimental question of smoothing the path for the future of the general is settled he believes that all councilors will feel more at liberty to tackle the greater questions concerning the future policies of the army.

ITALY CLANS IN RACE TO

Several Parties Want to Name Mussolini on Ticket
for New Chamber

ROME, Jan. 8. (AP)—Rivalry is being displayed among the organizations that are entitled to nominate Deputies for the new chamber as to which is to have the honor of naming Premier Mussolini as one of their representatives.
The associations of war wounded and former service men insist that they have prior claims. The Fascist Agricultural Federation maintains that "the first farmer of Italy" should be its candidate. The National Fascist Federation of Intellectual Workers contends that the Premier belongs to its ranks.
The probability is that Mussolini will be named on several lists. These lists will be gone over by the grand council of the party, which will meet at the end of February to draw up a single ticket of 400 names to be submitted to the nation on March 24. The list will be posted in all communities of the kingdom between March 3 and 9.

Arizona Orders Inquiry on Dam

PHOENIX, Jan. 8. (AP)—A meeting of State officials and private property owners in the vicinity of the Lake Pleasant dam on the Agua Fria River has been set for 10 a.m. tomorrow in the office of the State Water Commissioner here, at which time a commission composed of competent engineers will be named to represent the State in an inspection to be made of the dam.
The dam, known as the Beardsley project, was constructed to impound water for use of the Maricopa Municipal Water Conservation District
No. 1.
Nationally known engineers have inspected the project at the direction of the district within the last six months and have reported it cracked in several of the buttresses, with a difference of opinion as to the seriousness of the defects.

Miramar Estates, overlooking the Pacific

MIRAMAR ESTATES

LOOK OUT over the waters of Santa Monica Bay... follow the semi-circle of its surf line to Miramar Estates... and you will recognize instantly the very image of Mentone on the French Riviera.
The same sheltering hills to the north... deep-cleft canyons thru which the roadways wind... the protecting promontory... here is indeed "another Mentone!"
And on this spot, Southern California's most charming residential community is growing.
But with this difference: Instead of ancient walls and castles surviving from feudal days, you see castles of a newer time... the beautiful homes of successful American citizens. Upon the sloping hills of Miramar they have found a new freedom... freedom from the stifling conditions of city dwelling... freedom from the bondage of unlovely surroundings
... freedom from the tyranny of uncongenial associations.
Think well upon these things!
Then come out and learn to know Miramar intimately. View its natural beauties... see how science and art have lent their aid and glorified these gifts. Once you have built your home and are living in Miramar Estates, you will know days that are kindlier, nights that are lovelier... and even life itself takes on a new significance.

The Dollars—and Sense of 6% Interest

Six percent interest means that you receive $30 each six months on every $1000. Six percent interest compounded semi-annually means that every $1000 you have will grow to $2000 in less than 12 years and to more than $2400 in 15.

Six percent compound interest means to the monthly saver that 20 dollars a month will grow to $1400 in 5 years and almost $3500 in 10.

The saver and investor should consider 6% seriously in connection with his 1929 savings plan—but attractive as this interest is—he should only take advantage of it if he can do so without sacrificing safety.

Consider the fundamental factors of safety afforded by Pacific States Savings along with 6%. Analyze them and determine if they afford you every protection the cautious saver demands.

These factors of safety are simply and conclusively set forth in our December Statement of Condition. They have caused 37 thousand discriminating individuals and firms, corporations, insurance companies, banks, title insurance companies, estates and trustees to place funds in Pacific States. We believe they will determine you, too, to earn 6% at Pacific States Savings.

GRAPE COMBINE HAS FIRST LOSS

Deficit Revealed at Annual Association Meeting

Distribution Troubles Given Large Share of Blame

Improvement in Marketing and Prices Held Vital

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—For the first time in the seven years' marketing history of the California Grape Growers' Exchange the organization encountered a deficit during the past year, according to reports made today at the annual meeting of the 1400 members which comprise this co-operative juice grape organization.

The financial report showed a slight excess of expenses over receipts, and to offset this a resolution was passed providing for a cancellation and recording charge of $5 to make up the deficit. Although the exchange operated, according to the report, at an average of 50 cents per ton in its 1928 marketing program, the economy was not enough to prevent a loss. The deficit, it was said, was less than $7000.

REASONS GIVEN

Informal discussion which followed the submission of the report assigned numerous reasons for the falling off in revenue, chief of which was the recognition of general grape distribution trouble which materialized from the glutting of the eastern markets.

It was generally conceded that both marketing conditions and prices must be improved for the benefit of the grower or the situation will continue to maintain its present serious proportions.

LEEWAY URGED

R. M. Sheehan, president and manager, recommended, with the approval of the directors, that permission be given to members of the organization in good standing to cancel their marketing agreements for 1929 on the written request of the individual.

In seven years the organization has marketed nearly $18,000,000 worth of black juice grapes at Los Angeles. It was reported that the 1928 crop aggregated 67,700 carloads against a 1927 crop of 75,754 carloads. The tonnage, however, was considerably greater in 1928 than the previous year because of improved methods of freight-car loading, allowing much heavier loading.

PAY-OFF FOR GANG HELD AS GAMBLER

Bank Books May Reveal Membership of Chicago Heights Crime Ring

CHICAGO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Oliver J. Ellis, who as pay-off man for the Chicago Heights gambling and liquor syndicate, said he handled more than $50,000 a month, today was reported to have been named by the county grand jury in four true bills charging him with operating gambling devices.

Ellis was one of more than a score of men arrested in the suburb Sunday in a wholesale raid by Federal agents and the Chicago police who descended on the town of 25,000 at dawn, took over the City Hall and in the raids seized guns, ammunition, liquor and more than 400 slot machines, the latter at Ellis' home.

While Federal agents said Ellis stated frankly that he was the pay-off man for the gambling syndicate, he refused to name four other men, two of them reported to be county politicians, who shared the $50,000 a month with him. Whether the names were learned by the grand jury today the State's Attorney's office refused to say.

Among a score of others held, State and Federal officers hope to find the solution for at least three of about thirty slayings in the suburb in the last five years, most of them attributed to feuds between gambling and liquor gangs. Pass books held by Ellis to a Chicago Heights bank were seized and the bank ordered to produce its records of deposits as a result of which the authorities hope to trace others involved with him.

Beck Seated by Vote of House

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—By a vote of 247 to 78 the House today rejected a resolution to bar James M. Beck, former Solicitor-General of the United States, from a seat as Republican Representative from Pennsylvania.

The resolution, offered by the Democratic leader, Representative Garrett of Tennessee on the opening day of the last session, was swept aside by a vote that saw more than a score of Democrats joining in the almost unanimous chorus of Republican "noes."

A moment later the House adopted an affirmative resolution giving the Pennsylvania a clear title to his seat. Then, for the first time since he came to the House, Representative Beck took the floor to address the body, thanking the members for "sustaining my right to membership."

Gatling's Scion Weds That Way

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (AP)—The New York World today says that Richard Henry Gatling, vice-president of the Manufacturers' Trust Company of New York, who was divorced last Friday, was married the following day to Miss Ann M. Jones of Baltimore.

Mr. Gatling, who is a son of the inventor of the Gatling gun, was divorced from Mrs. Winifred Waters Gatling at Bridgeport, Ct., after he told the court his wife deserted him to go to Jerusalem in the interests of a religious sect.

Children's complaints frequently result in their being served cold, uncooked cereals for breakfast instead of hot, cooked ones they need for their better health. Too often their dislikes, and the time and trouble it takes to cook a cereal for breakfast, results in their not getting the proper bone and muscle building elements they need. But Top O' The Mornin' solves this problem—a nourishing, delicious breakfast they'll love better than any, already thoroughly cooked for hours and ready to just heat 'n' eat.

It's Better for You, Too
This Is Why:

You need a hot cereal for breakfast as well as the children. Doctors are advising it. And Top O' The Mornin' provides it for you without the trouble of cooking. Besides its appetizing and health giving properties, it contains roughage enough to prevent and relieve constipation—selected cracked Wheat, Scotch Oats, stone ground Rye, Bran and Dates. It gives you pep and keeps you fit. And oh, what a delicious meal it makes. You'll just love it, too, sliced and fried—see directions on the can. Start tomorrow RIGHT by getting a can Tonight.

THE SCULPTOR CRIED TO THE STATUE "Speak!"

IN Italy the story is told that when Michelangelo had completed his statue of Moses, he stood gazing into the face. A sense of reality grew so strong upon him that he fancied the great mass of marble actually breathed. Carried away by his emotions, the sculptor sprang forward, struck the knee with his mallet, and cried, "Speak!" (This statue, one of the world's greatest works of art, was completed about the year 1515, and stands in the Church of St. Peter in Chains, Rome. The duplicate, now in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, is the only exact size reproduction ever made of this colossal statue.) Every sincere and thoughtful person who visits Forest Lawn is impressed with its spiritual symbolism. Here are no grim suggestions that death is finality. In the well-kept green-sward, the plashing fountains, the duck pond, the winging doves, the majestic trees, the flowers, is life—boundless, abundant and endless. Throughout the spacious grounds the Spirit of Forest Lawn speaks words of comfort to those who sorrow, reminding them that death is but the doorway to Perfect Life.

The Times Free Information and Resort Bureaus

MAIN OFFICE—CORNER FIRST AND BROADWAY
For the convenience of our readers, we have established a free information bureau at our main office, where you can obtain information on all the resorts, hotels, and other places of interest in California. This service is absolutely free and is available to all our readers. Make your resort reservations and hotel bookings at the Times Branch Office, Information and Resort Bureau, 621 South Spring Street. Telephone METropolitan 0700.

"Direct-U"

Have you had difficulty in finding some particular advertised product? Have you had to hunt from store to store to find something you had seen advertised? The Times has established a new department called "Direct-U," which has collected data about thousands of products and services (advertisements) and has made it possible for you to find just what you need. The Times is glad to help its readers and advertisers through this new service. We make free use of it—there is no charge, of course. All you need do is phone the Los Angeles Times—METropolitan 0700—and ask for "Direct-U" Department.

Resorts

REST awhile AT ARROWHEAD SPRINGS

ARE YOU tired? Do you feel the urge to get away from work and worries? The place you'll enjoy and refresh over in Arrowhead Springs—the famous American vacation resort—just 2 1/2 hours from Los Angeles—where every modern hotel facility combines with many exclusive attractions. You can roll in the sunshine, slide down the waterfalls, enjoy marvelous cuisine—to your heart's desire.

Enchanted Spa

—the World's hottest curative Springs

The boiling natural mineral waters at Arrowhead Springs are one of Nature's greatest phenomena. Spas of springs—hot and cold, will interest you here. You can enjoy the wonderful unmineralized steam cave and mud baths. The caves with temperatures of 120° to 160° will steam you out and at the same time "pop you up"—immediately. Nothing like this elsewhere. Medical facilities. Resident physicians. Trained nurses and maids.

Golf
Cruel only 10 minutes from Los Angeles. Warm water swimming. Tennis courts. Motor hotel. Phone Los Angeles Office, FR. 0730, or in Service for reservations.

CLASH BEGINS ON NEW TARIFF

Farmers and Manufacturers
Battle Over Casein

Paper Makers Want Duty on Product Dropped

Producers Ask it be Raised to 8 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (P)—The first fight between producers and manufacturers—one which touched on a phase of the farm problem—broke out today at the tariff revision hearings of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Casein, a powder made from skimmed milk and used extensively by makers of coated paper, was the item over which the battle was fought. Disagreement developed over both the quantity and quality produced in this country.

NOT ENOUGH MADE

Martin Cantine of Gaugheries, N. Y., and Walter D. Randall of New York City, representing coated-paper manufacturers, contended not enough casein is produced in the United States to keep the paper plants operating, and what is available is of such inferior grade that the imported article is urgently needed. They advocated that the product, which now bears a 2 1/2-cent a pound duty, be restored to the free list.

W. S. Moscrip of Lake Elmo, Minn., representing the National Co-operative Milk Producers' Association, took a different stand and urged an increase in the duty to 8 per cent.

"This is the opening of the fight for farm relief," Moscrip declared, adding that agriculture statistics showed that 10,000,000 pounds of skimmed milk, enough to produce 300,000,000 pounds of casein, were wasted last year, part of it at the creameries, for lack of a market. This also was due, he said, to expensive equipment for making the powder and low prices paid for casein.

CALIFORNIA'S BEST

Randall had contended that elimination of the duty is necessary to permit paper makers to re-enter the world market against Germany and to reduce the selling price to users of casein. He declared that with the exception of producers in California, others in this country turned out a poor quality and unless the duty were taken off some plants will have to close down.

Moscrip said it was news to him that only California turned out a high-grade casein. He was requested by the committee to submit data on the quality of the article produced in this country.

TARIFF RISE TALK VEXES NEIGHBORS

Canadian Banker Holds Campaign Suggestions as Lacking in Amity

TORONTO, Jan. 8. (P)—Sir John Ald in his presidential address at the annual meeting of the Canadian Bank of Commerce today characterized as "unneighborly" the threat of higher tariffs made during the election campaign in the United States.

Stating that credit had been given to Canada in the United States for a large part of the expansion of American trade, Sir John said:

"It seems at least unneighborly that under these conditions the threat of higher tariffs, which will at least exclude our agricultural exports, should have been made during the recent election campaign and imposed by the people of the United States."

After the recent inauguration of the Canadian National Railways as provided under the Canada-West Indies treaty, Sir John said it was now "much to be desired that some means should be found for obtaining our requirements of such tropical fruits as bananas and oranges from the British West Indies instead of from or through the United States, as is largely the case at present."

He said this move would aid in the development of Canadian trade within the empire and tend toward the "better balancing of our trade with the United States, where imports so largely predominate."

The United States must be given credit for the recent improvement in European countries, Sir John said, owing to that country's "generosity in granting loans to the smaller European states, thereby releasing a very considerable amount of its unusually large holdings of gold."

"We trust the United States will continue to follow this policy," he added, "as we believe it can do so without in any way injuring its own financial standing."

RADIO CONTROL ASKED FOR YEAR

Continuance of Commission Requested Officially

Broadcasters' Association
Asks National Orders

Conditions Declared Hurt by Recent Allocation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (P)—Urging the extension of the life of the Federal Radio Commission for another year, Chairman Robinson of the commission testified today before the House Merchant Marine Committee that in his opinion radio broadcasting and reception conditions were better before the commission's reallocation in November than they are now.

The chairman advocated continuance of the commission's existence so that it could, among other duties, correct errors in the new radio station assignments if they have occurred.

The National Broadcasters' Association, through Henry A. Bellows of Minneapolis, a former radio commission member, submitted a list of recommendations to the committee, among which was urged the establishment of a permanent governmental agency to administer radio.

The association also criticized the Davis amendment to the radio law enacted at the last Congress providing equal distribution of broadcasting facilities among the five radio zones of the country on which the reallocations were based and recommended that the equal distribution policy in the statute be repealed.

Robinson, who appeared as the first witness at hearings on the White bill to continue the life of the commission until March 16, 1930, declared that he had opposed the reallocations, and added he had interpreted the Davis amendment to mean that an immediate drastic revision has not been intended, but that the changes were to be made gradually.

The chairman, however, in a prepared statement read at the onset of his testimony, declared that the new allocation "does introduce the principle of equality and does in a certain measure eliminate interference."

CALIFORNIA DIVA LAUDED

BERLIN, Jan. 8. (P)—Miss Renee Bullard of California tonight in the Bach Concert Hall gave a song recital which included arias from Beethoven, Mahler and Korngold. Her dramatic singing was heartily applauded.

MAN AND WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER ATTEMPT

MERCED, Jan. 8. (P)—Salvatore Cardinale and Mrs. Viola Post, asserted members of a Santa Clara county run ring, were held for Superior Court trial today after a preliminary hearing before Judge Bone. They are charged with attempted murder of Abel Pries, prohibition officer. Bond was set at $10,000.

COMES TO COURT ON MILK TRUCK

Film Star is Determined to be on Time

Priscilla Dean Defends Suit at Santa Ana

Case is Continued Until February 13

SANTA ANA, Jan. 8.—There was nothing of the temperamental movie star about Priscilla Dean when she faced the necessity of keeping an appointment with Superior Judge James L. Allen in court at Santa Ana yesterday and found herself with a stalled car still twelve miles from her destination. Priscilla simply flagged a lowly milk truck and rode thus to court, arriving on time for the scheduled start of a $61,000 damage suit brought against her by Charles and Sarah Ross of Anaheim. But the trial was postponed to February 13.

She left her brand new car by the roadside, west of Anaheim, in care of her distinguished husband, Leslie Arnold, round-the-world flyer. Miss Dean and her husband got an early start for court in their new car, but it failed them without warning. The car stalled about halfway to court, and the film star was left with a stalled car and a stalled trial. The car was apparently stranded. "No complaint for me," remarked Miss Dean, who still signalled a milk truck, which picked her up and delivered her on time at the courthouse steps.

FIND BONES OF HUMAN ON DESERT

Imperial County Officers Start Investigation to Find Man's Identity

EL CENTRO, Jan. 8.—With no other indication whether death may have been caused by violence or exposure to the desert, members of the sheriff's office here are seeking to identify a skeleton of a young woman found in Mammoth, northeast of Calipatria, late yesterday afternoon. According to Coroner Bert E. Lennett, who was a member of the searching party which located the remains, there was a small piece of cloth and brown hair which evidently had been artificially parted and combed shortly before death, to identify the victim. First news of the desert tragedy reached the sheriff's office late yesterday morning, when a prospector reported to Chief of Police the bones as Calipatria that another prospector had told him of finding a skeleton. Officers searched the vicinity all day Sunday but failed to locate the remains. A second party left yesterday morning, and the bones were located and located the bones late in the afternoon.

SAN DIEGO TO JOIN BIG WATER DISTRICT

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 8.—Anticipating the union of all southern counties to derive State aid for construction of a Colorado River aqueduct supplying this region with water, San Diego county today formally stood committed to join the present Los Angeles metropolitan water district for the best advantage. The action was taken in joint agreement of the County Board of Supervisors, with two new members on the board, and the City Council at the instigation of H. N. Sarver, city hydrographer.

AMENDED COMPLAINT IN HOSPITAL SUIT

VENTURA, Jan. 8.—The admittance of an amended complaint on the part of the Big Sisters Hospital, alleging that it is a charitable institution, and the hospital's failure to produce any records to show the percentage of charitable cases taken, marked the second day of the trial of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bonaker against the Big Sisters Hospital and Dr. R. J. Tully. The Bonakers are suing to collect $30,000 for the death of their infant daughter, Vera Grace, charging negligence on the part of the hospital, its employees and Dr. Tully.

OFFICERS HOLD AIRPLANE

Aircraft Found Near Ventura Thought to be Part of Smuggler's Equipment

VENTURA, Jan. 8.—That a plane which was found on the Joe Terry ranch near Santa Friday afternoon brought smuggled Chinese into this county, whence they were spirited away to Los Angeles or Bakersfield, was the belief of the sheriff's office here today. In accordance with this theory, Customs Agent Hansen of Los Angeles was notified and has sent men here to hold the plane.

The aircraft apparently made a forced landing Friday afternoon and neighbors reported they saw three men jump from it and run into a barn. Investigation revealed footprints of three men in the barnyard later, but the men were not found. The pilot, after a short flight, disappeared and has not been located.

BANQUET OF REDLANDS CHAMBER

Civic Boosters Hear Report of Officers for Last Year; English Aviator Talks

REDLANDS, Jan. 8.—The flight of the Question Mark and the fact that it traveled a distance half-way around the world shows that aviation is far beyond the experimental state and that soon attempts will be made to circle the globe in one continuous flight. This was indicated by Wing Commander Wynn of the Royal Flying Corps of England, who spoke to the members of the Chamber of Commerce gathered in annual meeting tonight. The dinner was held at the new Y.M.C.A. with retiring president, Earl Cronan, presiding. He introduced Luis W. Butterfield, the new president who was given a rousing welcome by the audience.

Chaffey Resumes Citrus Course

ONTARIO, Jan. 8.—Postponed early in December, due to outbreak of influenza epidemic, Chaffey citrus short course for citrus growers of Southern California, will resume sessions Tuesday, the 15th inst. C. J. Booth, dean of Chaffey Union College, and George W. Johnson, secretary, announced today.

CONGRESS HEADS CITY CLUB

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 8.—Dr. B. Connelley, elected president of the Santa Monica City Club at a meeting held last night in the Miramar Hotel. He presided in business and civic affairs here. Others elected were Harry E. Mahood, vice-president, and G. B. Kellogg, secretary-treasurer. The 1934 directors are: Dr. B. Connelley, retiring president; Elliott E. Harding, Hugh Logan and William H. Jackson, Frank W. Kelly, Charles W. Johnson, president; Fred Smith, Harry T. W. Schaefer, W. H. Jackson and T. H. Schaefer, speakers on important issues of 1934.

County Bill to Raise Pay of Officials

ASUBA, Jan. 8.—Three generations in one family will be induced into office at the installation of officers-elect of Asuba Masonic Lodge, No. 308, Thursday night. The ceremonies will be conducted at the Masonic Temple.

Grandfather, son and grandson will be seated in the offices of the lodge, and the three generations will be inducted into the lodge. The lodge is located in Asuba.

The new Master, who is only 30 years of age, has the distinction of being the youngest man to hold the office of Master in the history of the lodge. His grandfather, who is 82 years of age, is the oldest member in the lodge still holding office.

MARRIAGE LAW HALTS SAILORMAN'S ROMANCE

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 8.—Although Walter G. Hippie, sailor attached to the U.S.S. McDermott, accused of the murder of 3-month-old Lois Patricia Campbell, still is officially a naval prisoner, civil authorities here today transferred him to the custody of the sheriff's office for arraignment on the murder charge.

Hippie is being held in the City Jail on a technical charge, "aid to the enemy." He is being held on a technical charge, "aid to the enemy."

SANTA MARIA VALLEY SHOWS LARGE GROWTH

SANTA MARIA, Jan. 8.—The population of the city and valley of Santa Maria now totals 11,600, and the city population is 7,007, according to a survey made by Secretary Jesse Chambers of the Valley Chamber of Commerce, with the assistance of local public-service corporations.

These figures represent a gain of 50 per cent in nine years, since the population at the last decennial census in 1920 for the city of Santa Maria was 3,943.

LOCATE RAMBLING HOUSE

Structure Which Caused Much Discontent in Bay District Finally Moved from Street

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 8.—City officials here sighed with relief today, for down found Santa Monica's "house without a lot" safely moved from Fourth street, near the downtown district, where it has partially blocked traffic more than a month, to a location on Stanford street. During the night A. C. Harris, house mover, started rollers rolling again, and the dilapidated old residence was on its way to a permanent home.

Harris was said to have purchased the house in the darkness and were headed for that lot.

Ensuing efforts to locate the house on other lots roused sectional jealousy, property owners appearing at Council meetings to protest that a building not good enough for any other district was most emphatically not good enough for theirs.

The problem seems to be all settled now. Mayor Michel declared with a sigh of relief today. Police Chief Webb, who had failed in an effort to plan a traffic ticket for parking overtime in the street on the house, also smiled again.

MAYOR ON WITNESS STAND

Riverside Official Examined for Three Hours by Court Trying Him for Libel

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 8.—Testifying in his own defense on a criminal libel indictment brought by the grand jury, Mayor Dighton today was on the witness stand for more than three hours. The trial, which is being heard by Judge Tankvick of Los Angeles, is the result of a news story published in a Los Angeles evening paper in which the Mayor charged dishonesty on the part of certain city officials.

DISMISS HEAD OF HOSPITAL

Santa Barbara Supervisors Take Drastic Action in Case of C. G. Vandever

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 8.—One county official was dismissed, another was accused of incompetency in office, while several other officials had their salaries raised in the first meeting in 1934, considered county appointive officials.

C. G. Vandever, who was called here three months ago to take charge of the County Hospital, was summarily dismissed without notice. It was the first official act of the new Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Thomas Dineen seconded the motion and overruled the motion of Chairman C. L. Stanwood, who was passed Supervisor William Talbot voted for the dismissal.

Vandever's dismissal is effective at once. The Supervisors appointed Mrs. Eva Wilson temporarily to succeed him.

When Supervisor Talbot made a motion to have Dr. A. C. Larsen reappointed as cattle inspector and veterinarian, Chairman Prosser declared that the county was over-run with tubercular cattle because of the inefficiency of the inspector.

Dr. Larsen, who was present, took issue with the chairman and declared that he had done all one man could do to keep the herds in the county free from tuberculosis.

CAPITALISTS TO BID FOR STREET RAILWAY

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 8.—Agreement is near completion between the State Street Property Owners' Association and three individual capitalists to make bids for the purchase of the street railway system if the State Railroad Commission grants abandonment of the system to the Southern California Edison Company, in a hearing to be held on the 24th inst. It was announced today by W. Nelson Whittemore, secretary of the association.

One Los Angeles man and two Santa Barbarans have been approached by representatives of the capitalists, who are looking for willing bidders to bid for the railway. The action taken by the association, Mr. Whittemore explained, was the result of response made to the City Council when a demand for action was made several weeks ago.

DONATION TO CITY AS MEMORIAL

ONTARIO, Jan. 8.—As a beautiful tribute to the memory of his wife, Mrs. W. W. Jamison, several hundred small conifer trees have been donated to the city by Mr. Jamison to be used in beautifying the city.

Mrs. Jamison for years was a prominent member of the City Planning Commission and was largely responsible for establishing the new park in South Euclid avenue. It was her desire to see the park planted to conifers and ornamental shrubs, and the city has been given the gift by her husband to fulfill her wishes.

DISCOURS SCHOOL BILL

COSTA MESA, Jan. 8.—Leroy P. Anderson, representing the Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce, and G. C. Macleod, of the Newport Harbor chamber, expect to leave tomorrow evening for Sacramento, where they have an appointment to meet William John Cooper, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to discuss the harbor high-school bill with Senator N. T. Edwards of Orange and Assemblyman Ted Craig of Brea.

"BLUE GOOSE" ORANGES FOR EASTERN MARKET

OLENDORA, Jan. 8.—First of local fruit exchanges to make 1934 shipments, the Blue Goose Orange Exchange, today announced their initial shipment east for the new year.

That the 1934 crop will exceed any previous year in the history of the San Marcos road from the foot of the packing-house, is predicted by Sam Rice of the exchange.

COSTS TO BE DIVIDED

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 8.—The United States Forestry Service will pay one-half of the cost of culling the San Marcos road from the foot of the pass to San Lucas bridge, according to word received by Forest Supervisor W. V. Mendonhall.

PRESIDENT OF LEAGUE

SOUTH GATE, Jan. 8.—W. F. Parks, well-known business man in the Tweedy Boulevard district, has been selected as president of the South Gate Development League for the new year. Rance Vetter is the new first vice-president; Earl Fike, second vice-president; and James Hogan, secretary-treasurer.

SMOKERS OF FOREST

Report of San Diego Supervisor

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 8.—A report of San Diego Supervisor James L. Allen, made at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Los Angeles National Forest, which was held at the Hotel California, San Diego, last night, revealed that the forest was in good condition and that the stockholders were satisfied with the management of the forest.

PLEADS GUILTY TO OIL THEFT

SANTA ANA, Jan. 8.—Jack Lorenson, ex-foreman of the Steve Lanning oil lease at Huntington Beach, yesterday pleaded guilty to the theft of 1000 barrels of oil, valued at $8000, from the Standard Oil Company, and threw himself upon the mercy of the court.

His application for probation was set for hearing January 23 before Judge James L. Allen. Lorenson was trapped recently by Deputy Sheriff Harry Carter, who unearthed one of the most unwise schemes of wholesale theft that has come to the attention of the authorities. During an investigation that covered many weeks, Carter discovered that Lorenson was tampering with the valves to drain oil from storage tanks after it had been sold to the oil company, and draw it into other tanks, where it was again sold to the same company. The oil finally was stolen a second time and sold elsewhere.

UNEMPLOYED RUSH FOR WORK ON DAM

ASUBA, Jan. 8.—That hundreds of men rushing to this city with the anticipation of immediate work on the San Gabriel dam, which is being turned down daily, was the report today made by H. I. Shaw, manager of headquarters for contractors of the project, located in the First National Bank Building. Since the opening of an employment bureau on the project, the number of men who have been thronged with prospective dam workers.

Only executives are being hired at the present time, and the number of thirty workmen were placed on the pay roll yesterday, Shaw said. Actual construction on the dam will not start until March 1, when the time the workers' camp at the dam site will be completed.

RUSH WORK ON DAM AT SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 8.—Approximately half of the railroad leading from the Montecito water tunnel to the Juncal dam site, in preparation for work on the structure, has been completed, according to reports from officials of the Montecito water district.

Work on the tunnel leading through the mountains has been completed, and a concrete reservoir to hold Juncal water is under construction on the Montecito side of the mountains. Actual work on the Juncal dam, bonds for which were voted by Montecito several months ago, will be started late in the spring.

MIDWINTER GRADUATES AT REDONDO BEACH

REDONDO BEACH, Jan. 8.—Commencement exercises for a mid-year graduating class of seventeen students will be held at the Redondo Union High School on the 17th inst. with Dr. W. F. Dexter, president of Whittier College, as the commencement speaker. George E. Delavan, Jr., of the school, will make the presentation of the diplomas. Baccalaureate services will be at 4 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, the 14th inst. Dr. Bruce Baxter of the school of religion of the University of Southern California will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. A special program of music has been arranged by the high school orchestra under Frank J. Hanechka.

INCREASE ACREAGE IN COTTON PLANTING

ELYTHIE, Jan. 8.—Cotton ginning in the Palo Verde Valley today passed the 10,000 mark for this season. Four gins have been running at capacity for the last three months. Latest agricultural reports from the county indicate the planting of 400 acres in lettuce and cotton acreage for the coming year is estimated at $4,000 acres.

RECLUSE IN HEART VICTIM

REDONDO BEACH, Jan. 8.—G. F. Bailey, 77-year-old recluse, was found dead in his shoe shop at 118 1/2 North Pacific avenue early this morning. Life had been extinguished in his shoe shop at Redondo Beach, where he was found by a neighbor and Police Officer Ollie Cole, and physicians who had been attending him attributed his death to heart failure. The body is at the Cate funeral parlors, where an effort is being made to get in touch with relatives.

STATION DEALERS PAY BILL

Major Companies Stand Out from Under Gasoline Price Troubles; Coast Stocks Lower

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Traders in the stock market apparently are just beginning to realize that independent service station dealers are undercutting the retail prices of the major companies. Yesterday was the first time that the quotations on oil shares have reflected to any extent the unsettlement in the gasoline market; and, characteristically, the speculators will probably overestimate the seriousness of the trouble.

Angeleno Pays Record Price for Curb Seat

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (AP) Sale of a seat on the Curb Exchange for $63,000, a new high record, was reported today. The last previous sale was for $60,000.

FREE-FOR-ALL

As the situation now stands, the dealers are free to fight it out among themselves. It is generally understood that the refiners are allowing a 6-cent differential from the posted retail price of 21 1/2 cents. Dealers are fixing their own retail prices to meet competition, and the large companies are maintaining the posted price. So long as this price remains unchanged, the large companies are not greatly affected by the undercutting of the dealers.

STONE ON STOCK MARKET UNEVEN

General List Irregular With Quotations Mixed

Day's Trade Volume Set at 3,850,300 Shares

Call Rate Holds Steady at 7 Per Cent

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (AP)—The sinking spell on the stock market was less acute today, but bullish operations in a handful of issues failed to revive confidence, and weakness predominated at the close, although a few net gains of about 3 to 14 points were recorded.

Trading fell off markedly, and the peak of the selling movement appeared to be past for the present. Total sales aggregated but 3,850,300 shares, as compared to 4,700,000 yesterday. This was encouraging to a considerable extent in view of the fact that the New York Stock Exchange had been closed for a day last week.

Speculative sentiment, while far from cheerful, was rather less pessimistic than it was over the weekend, and there was a growing disposition to believe that an increase in the Federal Reserve discount rate may be avoided. Bankers felt that the New York Stock Exchange was unlikely to raise its rate from 5 to 6 1/2 percent, as long as the rate of four of the reserve banks remained at 4 1/2 percent.

Call money held at 7 per cent all day, and although a rate of 6 per cent or lower has been normal at this time in recent years, bankers now look for an average rate of 7 per cent for some time to come. When banks are able to get a yield of 4 1/2 to 5 per cent on acceptances, there seems little hope of real easy call money.

The day's news was largely favorable, but not of a character to affect the market. Despite hope of reduced activity on the stock market for a time, a seat sold at the record price of $600,000, which is $200 above the previous record. American Light and Traction raised its annual dividend rate from $6 to $10, and a few good earnings statements and more large railway call money.

NEW STOCK LISTED

Emaco Derrick and Equipment Company new no par value shares will be admitted to trading on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange today on a when, as and if issued basis. The stock will be traded on a regular basis Friday.

GAS MAINS that tap Industrial Fields!

The average industrial customer consumes 145 times the amount of gas burned by a domestic user.

Some of these industrial customers burn more gas in a single furnace daily than is consumed by a city and lighting by the entire population of a good sized town.

More than the great houses of the gas industry—among the present gas industries turning to gas in increasing numbers, in new industries being developed and the vast number of smaller industries, all of which are recognizing the economy, convenience and efficiency of gas, the great industrial fuel.

The acquisition of the following plants in the following cities has been directly increasing our gas production opportunities in the field.

Southern California Gas Co.
Oklahoma Natural Gas Co.
American Natural Gas Co.
Central Public Gas Co.

Oils Turn Softer as Traders Exhibit Uneasiness in Local Stock Dealings

Uncertainty characterized operations yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. General trading lagged from the opening and while miscellaneous and industrial issues presented a spotty condition, oil and bank stocks were subject to furies of selling. Uneasiness, brought about by the sporadic price cutting among independent retail selling stations, was held largely responsible for the action of the oils, which almost as a whole, closed lower on the day with fractional to full-point losses. The depression in this division of the market extended its influence to bank stocks, which also turned easier.

Trading activity was well spread through the oil list, with Barnard, Rio Grande, Union of California and Richmond the leaders. Barnard was the chief sufferer with a drop of 1-8 points to 43. Rio Grande sold off 3-8 to 34, while Richmond and Union of California eased off fractionally to 46 and 50 1-4, respectively. Union Association lost 1-2 to 40 1-2. Standard of California sold briskly to drop a full point to 70. Pacific-Western moved off 3-8 to 32.

Bolsa Chica held the center of speculative interest among the lower-priced issues in view of the announcement of the consolidation of that company with Gilmore and E. J. Milley Oil Company. In the early trading the stock slumped 55 cents to 3.25 and, after rallying to 3.45, reacted again to close at 3.30.

LOS ANGELES CURB

The depressing undertone manifested in the trading of oil stocks on the parent board was extended yesterday to operations on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange.

The entire list sold off and the volume of trading lagged behind that of the previous day. Industrial stocks, including the airplane shares, closed irregularly.

Meridian Seaboard was the outstanding trader of the day on a relatively smaller turnover than displayed a week ago. This issue slumped 1-8 points to 50. Macmillan Petroleum dropped 1-4 points to 37 1-4. Bolsa Chica B. in line with the A stock on a low larger board, broke 65 cents to a low of 64 1/2.

The market was active, with the price of oil falling from 10 1/2 to 10 1/4. The bank market was also active, with the price of bank stocks falling from 10 1/2 to 10 1/4.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (P)—Further irregularity developed in today's curb market, but the selling movement appears to have been confined to the oil shares. The market was generally quiet, with a few scattered transactions. The oil shares, however, showed a general decline, with some of the leading issues falling as much as 1/2 point. The market was characterized by a lack of interest in the oil shares, which were generally sold in small lots. The other shares, however, were generally held, with some of the leading issues showing a slight advance.

General uncertainty prevails over the credit situation. Some of the leading banks have announced that they are curtailing their loans, and the result is that they are consequently thrown overboard by investors. The market is consequently in a state of confusion, and the result is that the oil shares are being sold in large quantities.

On the "oil board," an oil sustained record was made. The oil shares were generally sold in large quantities, and the result is that the oil shares are being sold in large quantities. # Record-Breaking Plane's Last Day in Air Logged

HOPE WANES AS MOTOR FALTERS

Commander Tells Desperate Efforts to Stick

Failing Ship Sinks Lower as Refueling Begins

Sergt. Hooe Hazards Life in Attempt at Repairs

(Following are the final entries in the log of the record-breaking plane Question Mark, covering the period from 10:30 a.m. Monday until 2:01 p.m., when it landed.)

BY MAJ. CARL SPATE
 Question took over the controls and continued the old routine of striding San Fernando Valley. Checked the gasoline at 11 a.m. and found eighty gallons in the tanks. Told Question to circle field. Dropped message for gasoline. Strong wind interfered with accuracy of dropping. Dropped three more in rapid succession between 11 and 11:30. Message acknowledged by pursuing plane.

Baker took controls at 11:45 a.m. for refueling as refueling plane No. 2 took off from Metropolitan Field. At this time left motor began to sound and falter and dropped down to 1500 r.p.m. The right motor sounded all right, but there was no way of telling accurately as the tachometer broke just before daybreak. We circled the field in a tight circle while we watched Moon climb up to our altitude and began to wonder how many more times we would see his ship and Hooe's work their way toward us with the food, fuel and oil which kept us in the air. Study lad.

TRIBUTE TO HELPERS
 Without these splendid pilots and their efficient and tireless crew—Strickland and Woodring with Hoyt, Hopkins and Solter with Moon—I don't know what we would have done.

Contact with refueling ship No. 2 was established shortly after the noon hour.

The air was extremely rough and Baker had his hands full, due to rough weather and the motor problem. He had one badly acting motor and one which was entirely problematical, and added to this rather critical situation was the fact that we had to have gasoline to continue.

We had established contact when the refueling was brought to an abrupt halt after fifty gallons had been taken on. From my position in the extreme rear end of the Question Mark's passenger compartment I did not know what had happened but I gathered that Baker had decided that it was necessary for him to climb for altitude due to the prospect of increased motor trouble. I ran forward and by means of hastily scribbled notes passed between Baker and myself, learned that my conclusions were well founded.

REPAIRS VENTURED.
 Baker climbed to 5000 feet with the light load and while cruising at this altitude decided to take on fifty more gallons of gas and then have Sgt. Hooe attempt to make repairs. It looked as if, after all, the outwalk might come in handy. It was a tense moment. We felt as I believe sailors must feel at sea when the hour comes that they must stand on ship. The inevitable and was drawing nearer and nearer. We dropped a message instructing Capt. Elmerdorf that we wanted fifty gallons of gasoline on the hour every hour throughout the day and night until further notice. We didn't know how long we could run with the rapidly failing left motor continually threatening to stop entirely out of the picture. While we gave a comprehensive schedule for refueling we felt that so far as this flight was concerned there would be few left.

The ground crew must have anticipated and analyzed the situation that confronted us, because no sooner had our message floated to earth and been picked up by one of the several automobiles which scooted across the field in search of it than refueling ship No. 1 nosed into the wind and took off.

The contact was established in short order and only enough we had more difficulty in transferring fifty gallons of gasoline than we had in any of the previous contacts.

LEGISLATURE HAS LONE WOMAN

Miss Miller of Pasadena Does Not Feel Conspicuous, She Declares

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Although Miss Eleanor E. Miller of Pasadena is the only woman member of the Legislature, she feels neither lonesome nor conspicuous. This is the first time in several sessions that the Assembly has had but one woman member. "No, I don't feel lonesome," she declared today. "We are here for a common cause, so why should I?"

The Assemblywoman said she had several bills to introduce, among them a measure to establish a prison for women offenders. Miss Miller introduced a bill at the last session creating a commission to study the need of a prison farm. This commission has reported favorably to Gov. Young.

—running all the way from 100 to 700 gallons. The leaded end of the hose hit the ship on the wing with terrific force as the two ships tumbled and pitched in gusty air currents. The top of the wing was rather heavily cut and the oscillations of the two ships made it difficult for me to grab the end of the hose. However, after many minutes of intense suspense, contact was made and fifty gallons taken on.

SHOW WAS OVER
 It was then we knew that the show was over. We decided to land instead of being compelled to land in some unknown territory with the possibility of cracking up the ship. The refueling plane, by dumping the gasoline to lighten the load, which he did on signal from Capt. Baker.

RECORD REMAINS
 Naturally we were happy that we had remained aloft as long as we had. A human being adjusts itself readily to the various conditions it runs up against and we had become used to life aboard the Question Mark.

The wheels of our faithful plane touched the ground at 2:01 p.m.

AIR HONEYMOONERS HERE

Millionaire and Bride, Together With Wedding Party, Arrive in Plane from Reno

With his bride, the former Miss Caledonia Clay Cullen of San Francisco, George A. Henshaw, Jr., millionaire San Angelo (Tex.) oil man, who took a Hawaiian trip by airplane from Los Angeles to play Monday at his wedding in Reno, Nev., arrived at the Biltmore yesterday on the first lap of an aerial honeymoon which will take them across the American continent and all over Europe.

The newlyweds flew from Honolulu to Los Angeles as an operator and developer of oil properties and in a short time became successful. Three years ago he became acquainted with Miss Cullen, niece of Philip Clay of the music house of Sherman, Clay & Co., through her brother, who was employed by him in Texas.

WILL TOUR EUROPE
 Following a two-month business sojourn in New York, the Henshaws plan to sail about March 15, next, on the steamer Mauritania for Europe. They intend to take an airplane with them on the ship and fly leisurely over Europe on their honeymoon trip.

The story of the life of the bridegroom and the events leading to his marriage, as told by himself, are as spectacular as his honeymoon trip. Sixteen years ago, as a boy just out of school, he was in the Texas oil fields for $20 a month, $20 of which went for board. When the United States entered the war he joined the Army and in time became captain of an overseas machine-gun corps.

Upon his return to the United States, after he had been in the air 150 hours, 40 minutes and 14 seconds. The landing was perfect—Baker certainly knows his stuff.

We landed along the ground for what seemed to be a very short distance and then came to a stop. Baker threw the switch and the motor which for nearly a week had hummed their song—at times alarming but most of the time reassuring—ceased their roar. The propellers stopped. We took off our parachutes, shook hands.

MISSION CONDUCTS DOUBLE FUNERAL

Funeral services were conducted yesterday in the Midnight Mission for Cliff Tannon, who had fallen dead in that same chapel last Friday. At the same time, services were conducted for August Fuchs, 66 years of age, who died at the General Hospital Monday. Tannon, who was 65, died of apoplexy while attending chapel service. The funeral services were conducted by Brother Liddcoat. Following the services, the bodies were taken to Brown Brothers for cremation.

EVIDENCE NEAR IN KEYES CASE

"Bribe Diary" Recorder to be First Witness

Tampering Features Quis to Prospective Jurors

Sixty Examined During Day of Many Wrangles

3823 West Fifty-eighth Place; Donald Keith, 3311 East Fourth street; Alice Kemp, Pasadena; Florence D. Johnston, 615 South Alexander; Marian M. Nichols, 1246 West Fifty-ninth street; and Mrs. Nellie Phelps, 820 West Sixtieth street.

TAMPERING QUIZ
 Questioning of jurors consumed the morning session of the court. It was apparent from the outset that the question of jury tampering, revealed Monday afternoon when two prospective women jurors told Judge Butler they had been approached, was uppermost in the minds of counsel for both sides.

"Have you been approached by anyone either directly or indirectly interested in this case?" was a question asked juror after juror as they were seated tentatively in the jury box, taking the place of a venireman who had been excused. Negative answers were made in each case, but the question was repeated so often that it was finally agreed by the court that the question should be put to the twelve tentative jurors as a body, with the request that any of them so apparently make the disclosure known.

None of the jurors, however, indicated that anyone had talked about the case to them.

STOCK OWNERS BARRED
 It became apparent that neither side considered one who had ever owned Julian stock, or even is related to persons who did, desirable as a juror. Questions along these lines were asked every prospective juror by Defense Attorneys Beirne and Le Compte Davis. Mrs. Crast Ogden was excused by stipulation of both sides when she said that her sister had owned some Julian stock and that she and her two women did not live together. Mrs. Marian Marble was excused when she asserted that she had talked to persons "in the neighborhood" of the case and that she had a fixed opinion.

At the noon recess the defense attorneys had used nine of their ten challenges and the prosecution had thirty individual challenges. The prosecution had thirty-two challenges left. The matter of peremptory challenges led to an argument between Special Prosecutor Clark and Defense Attorney Davis, with Clark coming off victor in the legal fray. The prosecutor had announced himself satisfied with the jury on two occasions, forcing the defense to exercise one of their challenges to accept the jury as it was, but when it came the prosecution's turn to challenge they would exercise a juror they had apparently been satisfied with before.

PRACTICE SCORED
 In his argument to the court Attorney Davis asserted that such tactics will result in a situation where the defense will have used all their challenges and the prosecution still be in a position to excuse every juror acceptable to the defense and fill the box with those favored by the State. He declared the practice unfair, and appealed to the court. Judge Butler, however, pointed out that every time that the State announced themselves satisfied with their jury, the defense had the chance of a similar advantage from the defense, and thus the situation was as fair to one side as the other.

SETRACK PROTESTS DUE
 Protests against the establishment of a setback on Andrus street between West Avenue Thirty-Two and the Question Mark, the protest right of way will be heard by the City Council this morning.

PRAISE SHOWERS ON FLYERS

President Coolidge, Lindbergh, Commander Byrd, Army and Navy Laud Question Mark

From President Coolidge in the White House, from Commander Byrd in the frozen wastes of the Antarctic, from Col. Lindbergh and from government officials and leaders both here and in Europe, came congratulatory messages yesterday to the crew of the Question Mark on their great flight.

President Coolidge sent a letter in which he said: "My congratulations are extended to all who participated in the remarkable demonstration of the flight. The accomplishment of the flight is a source of confidence in aviation and again has shown the effectiveness of governmental pioneering in aeronautics."

Col. Lindbergh wired to Maj. Spatz: "I extend by heartiest congratulations on your outstanding flight."

Commander Byrd, from his camp on the barren Ross Sea ice barrier, sent congratulation to the Question Mark crew through Charles L. Lawrence, president of the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, makers of the three motors which drove the Question Mark on her epochal flight.

The Royal Aeronautical Society cabled from London its "Very cordial congratulations on the magnificent endurance flight which very suitably marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first flight by the Wright brothers."

Words of commendation and congratulations poured in on the flyers from Secretary Davis and other officials of the War Department. "Again the Air Corps has added to its long list of accomplishments as a blazer of trails," the Secretary of War telegraphed. "To all who contributed to the remarkable flight of the Question Mark, I extend my hearty congratulations on the splendid accomplishments of a difficult and hazardous mission. Your feat assures a pronounced growth of confidence in aviation and should inspire further progress in aeronautical development for the benefit of mankind."

WEDNESDAY MORNING COURT WILL GET LOVE BALM SUIT

Efforts to Settle $250,000 Action Prove Futile

Negotiations under way for settlement of the love-balm suit of Mrs. Baylis against Mr. Baylis, wealthy Baylis divorcee, have failed, according to an announcement made by the court of Superior Judge M. J. McQuinn yesterday. As a result of the failure, the case will be called for trial tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. In her complaint Mrs. Baylis alleges that Mr. Baylis stole the love-balm suit of Mrs. Baylis, and that she is entitled to $250,000. ### GAYER 'GYM' TOGS PROMISED

New gymnasium attire for women at the University of California at Los Angeles, differing from and more colorful than uniforms now worn by the co-eds, will be ordained in the near future. If plans being considered by women faculty members of the physical education department materialize. Five members of the department faculty have been appointed to investigate the deficiencies of the present garments and to suggest others to remedy the defects.

The present physical education uniforms consist of white middie blouse, black bloomers, black cotton stockings and high white shoes.

at Santa Maria, where they occupied separate rooms at a hotel.

In her defense Mrs. Bayles, according to her attorneys, will show there was absolutely nothing wrong or indiscreet in the trip which Mrs. Lewis complains of in her suit.

COLLECTIONS REPORTED

Total collections by the license division of the police department for December were $704,112. Chief Davis reported to the Police Commission yesterday.

Annual Cat Exhibit Will Open Friday

The twenty-sixth annual cat show will be held Friday and Saturday at 932 South Hill street with cats from all parts of Southern California on exhibition. It was announced yesterday. The show will open at 10 a.m. Friday and the judging will be at noon.

The show is under the management of Dr. C. C. Warn. Its secretary is Mrs. Harold Adamson. Mrs. Jack Gordon will serve as judge.

Faithful Wife Loses Patience

All during the time that A. H. Chapman was facing trial on an asserted charge of embezzlement of county funds his wife, Mrs. Maude L. Chapman, stuck by him, she told Superior Judge Frederickson yesterday at the hearing on her petition for a divorce. She even remained true and faithful to him when he was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary at San Quentin.

"Then when he was paroled he refused to live with me," Mrs. Chapman declared.

Mrs. Chapman was granted a decree on the grounds of desertion.

"Did the wedding go on without a hitch?"

"It did, indeed. The man Grace was to marry didn't show up."

ORATORS TO GET TALK TIPS SOON

Bar Association Man to Give Contestants Help

With more than 1000 students of secondary schools already working on orations for the sixth national and fourth international oratorical contest in the territory allotted to and sponsored by The Times, suggestions by James A. Van Osdel of the citizenship committee of the American Bar Association are to be given within the next few days.

"We are urging all students, whether entered in the contest or not, and parents as well, to follow the Van Osdel suggestions, which will point out the milestones along the way of constitutional history," said Prof. Albert Nichols, contest director, yesterday upon his return from Arizona. "They were prepared with the expectation that they will awaken a more widespread interest in that history and encourage the reader to search out and carry further the information given."

BACKGROUND NECESSARY

"To appreciate the Constitution we must view it in its setting of its historic background," said Mr. Van Osdel. "The spirit of that great document shines through the text only when illuminated by the torch of history. A knowledge of history is as essential to an intelligent citizenship as are chart and compass to the mariner. The would-be statesman who thinks to guide the ship of State and at the same time ignore the teachings of history, would send the craft upon the rocks on which misguided governments already have been wrecked."

"Only through enlightenment will American institutions be perpetuated. When the citizenship of this country learns the truth about our form of government and the history of the conditions which brought it into being it will not be easily led astray by demagogues."

"The story of our Federal Constitution is rich in history, worthy of our careful study. We are prone to think of the Constitution merely as a legal document struck off under the impulse of the moment or as the result of a sudden inspiration that came to these American patriots who met in Independence Hall in Philadelphia in May, 1787, and after four months of labor gave to the world that memorable document. We must not look upon it as the result of sudden impulse — a mere product of the moment; to view it in that light is to fail entirely to grasp its deeper meaning."

ANGLO-SAXON PRODUCT

"Our Federal Constitution is the product of centuries of struggle and sacrifice by the liberty-loving Anglo-Saxon peoples on the other side of the Atlantic and continued by those who came to this side for nearly two centuries before they saw their ideals embodied into the written basic law of a new nation. Love of liberty was the inspiration that had sent their forbears into the New World and sustained them while they laid the foundation for a government of laws instead of a government of men."

"The idea of human liberty is not indigenous to American soil. Love of liberty and the struggle to obtain and maintain it created in the Anglo-Saxon mind the concept of liberty made secure by law long before it found expression in Magna Charta, at which point we properly may begin to mark the evolution of the idea of a fundamental law that was finally to find concrete expression in our Federal Constitution."

BORN OF STRUGGLE

"The constant effort of unwise monarchs to impose their will on the subject and the never-ceasing resistance of that subject to what he instinctively felt was an invasion of his natural rights were the forces that moulded the ideas and kindled the spirit that carried the Anglo-Saxon step by step toward the goal so happily described as a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Centuries of conflict had given to the Anglo-Saxon mind so high a conception of liberty and so clean an appreciation of its worth that his view of what we must do to preserve it, once it is obtained, is worthy of our most careful consideration."

"Our government, great as it is, is not free from peril. The liberty it guarantees can be lost. It can be surely be destroyed by erosion as by assault. It is as true today as when the Irish patriot Curran declared it that 'eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.'"

"Much of the present opposition to our form of government springs not from hatred of liberty but out of the ignorance of those who think that liberty is license and who fail to understand that true liberty is liberty within the law. Daniel Webster said, 'God grants liberty only to those that love it and are willing to guard and defend it.' Enlightenment is liberty's best defense, hence the duty of the hour is to educate in things fundamental in free government. To do this we should acquaint ourselves with the history of our Constitution and get a firmer grasp upon the philosophy underlying the government which it creates."

"Broadly speaking, the history of our Federal Constitution is 2000 years of history of the Anglo-Saxon race. F. Dumont Smith in his story of the Constitution says: 'While there are some things in the American Constitution that were new, the greater portion of it is a growth developing gradually as the Anglo-Saxon race increased in civilization, culture and knowledge of government. Other nations may surpass it in many ways—in music, in painting, sculpture and the finer arts of civilization, but the distinction for the Anglo-Saxon is his capacity for self-government, his creation of permanent free institutions.'"

Flood Damage Award Sought

An echo of the St. Francis Dam disaster in March, 1928, was heard yesterday in Superior Court when Mrs. Elizabeth Coop petitioned the court to settle a compromised claim for damages against the city growing out of injuries to her minor son, John E. McCarty.

According to the petition, the city has agreed to pay the boy $350 in settlement of his claim and Mrs. Coop asks that the payment of the sum be authorized. Young McCarty is said to have sustained injuries in the collapse of the dam and the flood that followed.

Still Thin

Still young, still lovely

So easy to fight fat

Have you wondered why the extra pounds of old days have so largely disappeared? The chief reason lies in a scientific discovery made some years ago. Medical research found that a great cause of excess fat lay in a deficient gland. A way to correct it was discovered. Since then, physicians the world over have employed this method in the fight on fat.

A famous medical laboratory perfected the secret in this method in Marmola's prescription tablets. People have used them for 21 years—millions of homes of them. You can see the results wherever you look. Excess fat in men and women is nowhere near as common as it was.

No starvation, no overwork, corrects the cause of excess fat, but moderation helps. When the cause lies in a defective gland, that cause must be corrected. The slender figure that you see about you are largely due to Marmola. The new youth and beauty, new health and vigor that you enjoy. You do yourself a grave injustice if you omit this help.

The way is to correct this gland deficiency. No abnormal exercise or diet. Simply take four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal. Watch the fat go, watch the new vitality return. You will be delighted. Do this now to live life to the full. You should not delay a day.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Invitations are being issued by Mrs. Georgia Keating Kennedy of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Frank William Davey of Hollywood for a luncheon and bridge Monday, the 21st inst., the affair to be given at the Vista Del Arroyo, Pasadena, at 1 o'clock.

Honors Visitors
In honor of Mrs. John T. Warren and daughters, Misses Catherine and Marion Warren of Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Leizer, entertained with a dinner party at the Arcady. Mrs. Warren is prominent in the social and club life of Honolulu and with her daughter is enjoying a delightful sojourn in Southern California.

Dinner Party
Mr. and Mrs. Colin Clements (Florence Ryerson) entertained a small group of friends at a dinner for Morgan Parley, the affair taking place at their home in Beverly Hills Monday evening. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tocharian, Peter Rocco, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Behn and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bates Abbott of Boston.

For Classmates
One of the lovely affairs of the Yuletide season was the luncheon with which Mrs. Hugo Boore and her charming daughter, Miss Helene Boore, entertained at the Mary Louise on West Seventh street, honoring a large number of Marlborough School classmates of the latter. A large oval table seating twenty guests centered the group of six smaller tables, each exquisitely decorated with a profusion of blossoms in the pastel shades and ferns. Huge bowls of pastel flowers and fern formed the centerpiece, with streamers of pastel-shaded ribbons, soft-toned candles in crystal holders lighting the tables. The place and light were also in the same shades.

Assisting the hostesses were Miss Virginia Davies, Miss Alene Pelton, Miss Robert Fursinger, Miss Phyllis Cooper, Miss Eleanor Humphreys, Miss Ruth Bradford, Miss Anne McGee and Miss Allene Dalwig, each girl wearing a beautiful corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Bridge featured the afternoon's entertainment, tables being arranged in the Rose Room.

Studio Luncheon
The Hollywood Studio Club at 1215 Lodi street will be the setting for the Pi Beta Phi luncheon Saturday afternoon, the 12th inst., at 12:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the day include Mrs. John Knorrp and Mrs. P. M. Young.

The guests will have the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Jack Valery in one of her inimitable current reviews. Among those bidden are Pi Phi from Long Beach, Pasadena and Glendale.

Birthday Anniversary
One of the loveliest of the season's affairs was that with which Mr. and Mrs. Guy Price entertained Saturday afternoon at their home on South Gramercy Place, the occasion celebrating the sixth birthday anniversary of their young daughter, Laura Ann Price, the guests including twenty-two little friends of the dainty young honoree.

Dinner Party
Mr. and Mrs. George Schneevogt entertained with a dinner party at the Biltmore Hotel Friday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Judson Rives, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Carter, Dr. Alexis Kall, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie Smith, Rev. Joseph Tonnello, Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Atterberry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Frankel, Maestro and Mrs. Otto-Rino Respighi, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Niven, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heriz, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin H. Furman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heath, Julius MacKee, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berbeck, Redfern Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fitz.

Matinee Luncheon
The Mary Louise, on West Seventh street, was chosen by Mrs. J. Charles Thamer of Pullerton as a setting for a most attractive matinee luncheon Thursday. A large oval table was laid in the center of the main dining-room and richly decorated with huge pottery bowls filled with deep-colored flowers, with loops of satin ribbon in red and fuchsia shades. Two charming holiday dolls stood at either end of the table and a number of bright balloons floated above each brightly lit in its crystal holder. Hand-painted place cards marked the places of Misses George Storey, Jack Conner, William Goodwin, William Brooks, Danforth Cowles, R. V. Sweet, Angus McCully, Jane Hungerford, Arthur Cleaver, J. Roderfer, J. E. Jones, Jr., Arthur Staley, Rocky Bailey and J. Charles Thamer.

Sorority at University Entertained

Misses Margaret Harrah and Martha Burnham

A SMART bridge-tea of recent date was that with which Miss Margaret Harrah and Miss Martha Burnham entertained for the members of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, of which they both are members at University of California at Los Angeles, the affair taking place at the home of the latter.

The table and a number of bright balloons floated above each brightly lit in its crystal holder. Hand-painted place cards marked the places of Misses George Storey, Jack Conner, William Goodwin, William Brooks, Danforth Cowles, R. V. Sweet, Angus McCully, Jane Hungerford, Arthur Cleaver, J. ## GUIDING YOUR CHILD

ONE CLEVER DODGE

By Agnes Lyne

Children have all sorts of clever dodges for getting things their own way. Many of them practically dictate their diets because they have learned the simple expedient of vomiting any food which they dislike.

Their parents reach the conclusion that certain foods cannot be retained for physiological reasons. They give up the effort to make the child eat a balanced diet.

This should never be permitted, both because the child's body needs the proper variety of foods and because the child should never get what he wants by such infantile tricks. Such ways of meeting an unpleasant situation will be harmful to the child's later adjustment. We all know people who become conveniently ill when faced by unpleasant facts and who thus escape most of their unbecoming obligations, allowing the rest of us to assume their burdens.

Betty at the age of three had perfected a technique by means of which she never had to eat vegetables. Her meals had been long delays in which she was urged, coaxed and finally coerced into eating the hated foods. Five minutes later she would vomit the entire meal. Her system worked so well that for a long time her anxious mother allowed her to subsidize herself on cereal and milk.

When her case came under the observation of experts, the mother was advised on a plan of re-education. Whenever Betty vomited her food, she was to be given nothing but a small quantity of this same food at every meal until she kept it down. The plan was to be carried out quietly and firmly, without dramatization and without nagging.

Sometimes, however, resistance to certain foods is only part of a general negative attitude caused by a complex emotional situation which it may require the help of a psychiatrist to solve. Such a child is obviously unhappy. The child who is nagged, scolded, who is not sufficiently loved, who is jealous, may take this means of getting even with his parents or of getting the attention he craves.

LINCOLN'S NEW YEAR
A gala New Year's Eve midnight show will be staged at the Lincoln Theater where the colored Lafayette Players are appearing in "Queen High," the group's initial musical comedy offering.

The Queen of Spain did much of her Christmas shopping in London this season.

Rubber Plants
The gloss of a rubber plant is greatly increased if a teaspoonful of sweet oil is worked into the ground around the roots about once a month.

HEALTH AND DIET

ADVICE

By Dr. Frank H. Cox

Dr. Cox will answer personal questions on health and diet, care of The Los Angeles Times. Inquiries should be sent to the health department, 1000 Broadway, New York City.

EXERCISES AND ELECTRICAL TREATMENTS FOR PRO-LAPUS
Do not waste your time taking exercises while standing, as this kind of exercise has no appreciable effect on the abdominal muscles. The best exercises are those taken while lying on your back on the floor. Practice these exercises slowly at first and gradually increase the time until you are able to do them vigorously for at least fifteen minutes a day.

The flatter your abdomen becomes, the greater your degree of health and strength. You will lose that feeling of heaviness and there will be an added buoyancy to your walk. You will have the best results if your exercises for strengthening the abdominal muscles are taken while lying on your back on a slanting board, with your feet on the upper end of the board, which is elevated two or three feet above the floor. When you are in this position, the organs sag away from the lower abdomen and, while exercising, it is often possible to break loose the adhesions which have been binding the organs down out of their normal position. It may take months of perseverance, but the good to be accomplished is well worth the effort necessary.

When the internal muscles in the walls of the intestines have become chronically weakened, it is sometimes necessary to employ a sinusoidal electrical machine for strengthening them, since these muscles are not under the control of the will and cannot be intentionally exercised and developed as can the external abdominal muscles. In my own practice, I find that the machine most satisfactory for this treatment gives an alternating contracting and relaxing movement to the internal muscles. In other words, it puts them through a kind of gymnastic treatment. When the current is on, the muscles contract, and when the current is lessened, the muscles relax. Some of the slow sinusoidal machines must be operated by hand but the more satisfactory are those which work automatically.

Many doctors are using this type of machine and they will all agree with me that it is invaluable for correcting kinks in the intestines, massaging the prostate, lifting sagging organs and increasing tone throughout the entire intestinal tract.

The best results from the electrical treatments are obtained if the adhesions are first loosened and the prolapsed raised with the hand.

DIET
The following are the suggestions of a physician for the diet of a woman who is suffering from indigestion and constipation. The diet should be light and easily digested. It should consist of the following:
Breakfast: Sliced oranges and coconut, bread and butter, jam, milk.
Lunch: Crab, newberg, melba toast, stuffed celery salad, English bread pudding, tea.
Dinner: Potage spaghetti, celery, young onions, roast saddle of lamb, sweet potato pancakes, mashed turnips, lettuce, Roquefort cheese dressing, apple and raisin pie.
Dessert: Crab newberg.
Remove the meat from a compound can of crab, shred, place in a double boiler three table-spoonfuls of butter, and when it melts, add the crab meat and allow to cook for five minutes. Season with salt, paprika and three table-spoonfuls of cooking sherry and a few grains of nutmeg. Beat the yolks of four eggs until light and creamy, add to them one cup of rich milk and slowly stir into the crab mixture and stir until thick and smooth. Serve at once.
STUFFED CELERY SALAD. Cream two table-spoonfuls of butter, with one small creamed cheese, add paprika and one-fourth of a table-spoonful of salt; four stuffed celery stalks, mix all together thoroughly, clean the celery, cut off the tops and fill the hollow with the cheese mixture; cut off pieces about one inch long, marinate with a little French dressing, place on lettuce covered plates, garnish with a spoonful of mayonnaise and sprinkle with chopped walnuts.
SWEET POTATO PANCAKES. Grate enough raw sweet potatoes after peeling to make two cupfuls, beat the yolks of two eggs with one-half a table-spoonful of salt and one-fourth of a table-spoonful of pepper, sift the grated potatoes two table-spoonfuls of flour, add to them the beaten egg yolks and if necessary add a little more flour; fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, drop by spoonfuls on a well-oiled griddle and brown on both sides. The cake should be very thin. Serve hot with a tomato sauce.
APPLES AND RAISIN PIE. Peel, core and slice very thin tart apples, and arrange in a pie-try lined plate, cover the top with one-half a cupful of seedless raisins that have been soaked in orange juice for one hour. Mix one-half a table-spoonful of nutmeg, one table-spoonful of cinnamon with half a cupful of sugar. Sprinkle over the raisins and apples, dot with two table-spoonfuls of butter, broken in small pieces, place on a top crust; put in a hot oven and allow to bake for ten minutes. Then reduce the heat and finish baking.

CAFE NEWS

Agnes Ayres, former leading lady for Rudolph Valentino, will appear at the Montmartre Cafe this evening as guest of honor. It is announced. An unusually entertaining program has been arranged for the occasion with moving-picture celebrities taking part in the impromptu entertainment, which has made the Hollywood cafe famous. Miss Ayres will be the official judge of the dancing contest, awarding the prize to the winning couple. Roy Fox will provide the music.

EXCLUSIVE FEATURE
"Millionaire's Table" at the Nikabob has become a feature of that popular cafe, at Western avenue and Ninth street, the heart of the Wilshire district. The table is a unique innovation, especially designed for a group of wealthy single men who dine alone.

The Nikabob is serving a moderately priced table d'hôte luncheon and dinner, its unusually beautiful architecture and furnishings attracting diners from all parts of Los Angeles.

VISITORS REGISTER
Visitors from nearly every State in the Union have made reservations to join the film celebrities attending the weekly studio luncheon dance today at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.

With the film colony hospitality enjoying one of its most active tourist seasons, the Wednesday noon affairs are taking on a national atmosphere. Each evening is marked by a special musical program, and the one today will be especially elaborate in honor of the post-holiday travelers just arrived.

CHICKEN AND MUSIC

C. Fred Harlow's Moulin Rouge Cafe, in West Sixth street near Lucas street, is considered by many cafe-goers as one of the loveliest night clubs in the city. Patrons not only enjoy deliciously prepared fried chicken there, but excellent entertainment as well. Lou Harris and his orchestra render a selection of new dance hits and several clever character numbers nightly.

SOUTHERN CUISINE
The Cafeteria Unique, recently opened in West Seventh street near Vermont avenue, is enjoying an exceptionally fine business, the management reports. Continuous service from 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. is one of the outstanding features of service for patrons. All colored cooks are employed and real southern cuisine is served. Another unusual feature of the cafeteria is that banquets, afternoon teas and bridge parties may be held on the mezzanine by making reservations.

LIGHTING DISTRICT ASSESSMENTS PASS

The City Council yesterday adopted the reports of its Traffic and Street Lighting Committee recommending the approval of assessment district maps for the installation of lighting appliances in the following localities: Selma avenue between Gower street and Highland avenue, Minna avenue between Indiana and Hollenbeck avenues, Beverly Boulevard between Compton and Junita avenues and the Clifford avenue and Carmlina-avenue lighting district.

Maddux Gets Sixteen-Seat Ford Airplane

With Lieut. Dan W. Tomlinson of "Three Sea Hawks" fame at the controls, a Ford trimotor, sixteen-passenger air liner came to rest on Rogers Airport alongside the twelve-passenger planes of the Maddux Air Lines fleet. It is the ninth large plane for the Maddux system, and is said to be the largest commercial plane in California.

Passengers aboard the plane from the East included Margaret Barlett of Reno, Nev.; Capt. William McCall of Hollywood police, and St. E. Young, a commercial pilot. Jack Williams assisted Tomlinson in bringing out the ship.

Among 500 people friends of the passengers aboard ship or aviation men of Los Angeles, who greeted the arrival of the ship, were Lella Hyams, Buster Keaton and Edward Sedgwick.

According to J. L. Maddux, president of the air lines, the first duty of Tomlinson when he gets acquainted with the entire organization, will be to survey the route to Mexico City from Los Angeles.

Rome, Italy, now has 355 churches of many denominations.

Famous British Surgeon to Be Church Speaker

Sir William Wainless, three times decorated by King George V for his services to India, will be a speaker under the auspices of the American Mission to Lepers at 2 p.m. today at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Eighth and Hope streets.

In the course of forty years of medical service in India Sir William is said to have opened more than 1,500 operations for leprosy in the world, 1,355 of which were performed in his hospital, and 10,000 of these operations were performed by Sir William. During his life he performed more than 200 other major operations, and many lepers came under his observation and treatment. He will discuss his work at the meeting.

Sir William recently retired and now is living in Glendale.

KANSANS INVITED
Readings and music will feature the Kansas rally tomorrow evening when the Jayhawkers meet in Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street. Roll call of comrades, prize awards and dancing will be attractions. All Kansans are urged to attend.

HIGH LIGHTS IN HISTORY 1233

The Story of the World War III—Competitive Armaments

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

IN 1913 THE NATIONS OF EUROPE WERE LIVING IN A NIGHTMARE OF WARLIKE SUSPICION. A SORT OF MYSTERY HAD SEIZED UPON THEM. EACH BELIEVED THAT ITS VERY EXISTENCE WAS MENACED BY JEALOUS RIVALS, AND THAT THE ONLY WAY TO BE SAFE WAS TO BE BETTER ARMED THAN ITS NEIGHBORS. SINCE ALMOST ALL OF THEM FELT THE SAME WAY, COMPETITIVE ARMING BECAME A MAD RACE WITH NOTHING BUT TROUBLE AHEAD.

THE BALKAN WARS OF 1912-1913 HAD THREATENED TO DRAW IN SOME OF THE GREAT POWERS. AND 1913 SAW THE CLIMAX IN WARLIKE PREPARATIONS. NATIONS INCREASED THE PEACE STRENGTH OF THEIR STANDING ARMIES, AND APPROPRIATED STAGGERING SUMS FOR ARMS, AMMUNITION, EQUIPMENT, FORTIFICATIONS, STRATEGIC RAILWAYS AND BATTLESHIPS.

THE DEFEAT OF TURKEY (THEN A SECRET ALLY OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA) IN THE FIRST BALKAN WAR AND THE STRENGTHENING OF THE SLAVS IN SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE DISTURBED THE BALANCE OF POWER BETWEEN THE TWO GREAT EUROPEAN ALLIANCES (THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE AND THE TRIPLE ENTENTE), AND TIPPED THE SCALES TO FAVOR THE TRIPLE ENTENTE.

SERBIAN VICTORIES AND TERRITORIAL GAINS IN THE BALKAN WARS HAD THROWN AUSTRIA-HUNGARY INTO A PANIC. THE POSSIBILITIES OF A TARIY CLIQUE IN VIENNA DECLARED THAT THE AMBITIOUS SERBS MUST BE CRUSHED BEFORE THEY COULD USE THEIR NEWLY GAINED STRENGTH TO LIBERATE THE SLAVS OF THE LIVING UNDER AUSTRIAN RULE, AND THUS THE DUAL MONARCHY.

Jones and Daviscourt Grapple Tonight in Main Event of Wrestling Show at Olympia

KANSAS GIANT
DOPED TO WINDaro Puts on First Program of New YearRivals Wrestled to Draw Here RecentlyPete Sauer and Bill Shaw in Semi-Final

TONIGHT'S MAT BOUTS

Paul Jones vs. Dick Daviscourt, best two out of three falls to a finish.

Pete Sauer vs. Bill Shaw, best two out of three falls to a finish.

Jack Roller vs. Zano Yoshimi, best two out of three falls to a finish.

Dick Daviscourt, the rough mat giant from Kansas, will enter the ring at the Olympia tonight a favorite to beat Paul Jones, the lanky Texan, in the main event of the wrestling show.

Paul Jones, the lanky Texan, is giving the Kansas edge as a result of Daviscourt's sensational showing against Jones when these two wrestled an hour to a draw here three weeks ago. At that time the Kansas had the hook-scissors expert on the defense many times with his rushing and roughing tactics.

DICK WAS ROUGH

It was Daviscourt's roughing more than anything else that brought about the rematch between these two stars. Jones declared that his 220-pounder had used the roughing method to stick the full hour. Jones had not expected the roughing and did not prepare for it. Daviscourt, on the other hand, believes that Jones had used the roughing method to stick the full hour. Jones had not expected the roughing and did not prepare for it.

Daviscourt has an advantage in weight and strength which is expected to help him beat the Texan. The latter is considered a clever grappler than the Kansas. He has used a greater assortment of holds during a match than any heavyweight has used in the past. He is a clean grappler, but can rough with the best in this line. He has proven it to the satisfaction of the fans many times in the past, and hopes he will have the chance to hand Daviscourt some of his own medicine tonight.

Ed "Strangler" Lewis, who lost his world's title to "Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg in Boston last week, has challenged the winner of this bout as well as the winner of the special event.

The no-time-limit match between Pete Sauer and Bill Shaw, sensational 200-pounder, will have to be a whirlwind one to take the play away from the feature bout, in the opinion of mat experts.

SAUER RATES HIGH

Sauer is rated as one of the very best grapplers of his weight in the country. Neither Lewis nor Gus Sonnenberg would have anything to do with Sauer when they were champion. Sauer is a fast, punishing wrestler and well liked by the local fans. His cradle-hold has been used nearly every mat star he has met since he returned to the game more than a year ago.

Shaw, Sauer's opponent, has hit his stride at last and expects to give the local star a close battle. The red-headed Ohio boy has always displayed plenty of action in every match he has taken part in here. As Sauer is the same type of wrestler, there will be plenty of mat fireworks when they come together.

KANO YOSHIMI, 140-pound Japanese jiu-jitsu expert, and Jack Roller, 210-pounder, will meet in the opener. The bout will be divided into four periods of five minutes each, with a minute's rest between each period. Roller is favored to beat the jacket expert.

Mark Is Set
by Andromeda

TIA JUANA RACE TRACK, Jan. 8.—Another race track record fell this afternoon, this time the mark for the clubhouse course, which is just 230 feet short of a mile. Andromeda, speedy filly from the stable of Benny Creech, did the record-breaking to win the sixth and feature race of the afternoon, an allowance affair for 3-year-olds.

The filly came fast on the inside rail to cover the distance in 1:24 1-2, two-fifths of a second better than the old mark held by Rachel Potter. TEX RICKARD'S FUNERAL to the ring for his shows and if not to replace the fight fans of other days, whose uniforms was a cap and a sweater, at least to push them further back in the picture.
WILL BE HELD TODAY

In death, the "best people" in their high hats came with the boys nervously twitching their caps in their hands to pay tribute to a man who succeeded in making boxing respectable.

Boxing champions and title-holders of other days were in the throng, several white-haired men who held belts before Richard ever saw a gloved hand laid out or counter, coming to pay respectful tribute to a man whose like was not seen in their day.

Hockey, too, was represented, for not only does the body rest near the ring posts for a boxing bout, but on a surface that also resounded to the clang of skates on speeding feet. Boxing was the promoter's first and foremost love, but hockey was second in his affections.

At the funeral tomorrow boxes and hockey players and officials will join the crowd for both sports in saying a final "well done."

At 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the many doors of Madison Square Garden will be closed to only holders of cards will be admitted after that hour. Card holders will include friends of the family, prominent in sport, especially boxing and hockey, and officials of the Madison Square Garden Corporation, of which Tex Rickard was president and general manager.

WALKER IN EULOGY

The services in the Garden will be conducted by the Rev. George C. Walker, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, and it was expected that he would pronounce a eulogy on the life of the late Tex Rickard.

The Mayor as a State Senator, was the father of the Walker Law, restoring boxing to favor in New York State. He was long a friend of Tex, and occupied a ring-side seat at nearly every big fight in the Garden.

Honorary pallbearers announced include: Ernest G. Imbel, Walter C. Kelly, Roy Howard, Ralph Pulitzer, Anson O. Carter, Richard Dunn, George F. Getz, James Hall, Frank Calder, Leo Dandurand, Gene Buck, Richard F. Hoyt, William F. Carey, John M. Chapman, Col. John S. Hammond, Harvey Gibson, Walter Chrysler, Walter Fisher, Jack Dempsey, William Muldoon, James A. Farley, George E. Brown, Walter Camp, John Kilpatrick, Sydney R. Kent, John Ringling, Herbert Bayard Swopes, Kermit Roosevelt, Dewey W. Ellsworth, Matthew C. Bruh, J. Ernest Richards, James I. Bush, John R. Dillon.

Representatives of the boxing and hockey writers also will serve as honorary pallbearers.

The body of the promoter reached New York from Miami this morning and will be taken to the Garden for burial at the Madison Square Garden.

Tex Rickard, the promoter, was an inspector, his deputy, twenty sergeants and 300 patrolmen were assigned as the body lay in state.

DEMPSEY AS ESCORT

A haggard and worn Jack Dempsey escorted Mrs. Rickard, bordering on collapse, to her home at the Garden. The former heavyweight champion showed signs of suffering at his friend's death almost as pronounced as those of the widow.

On his way to the Garden, he hung heavily about the arena, was not needed to show that the big sportsman was in deep mourning. He hung heavily about the arena, was not needed to show that the big sportsman was in deep mourning.

S. C. Sprinter Near Death in Bad Accident

Nate Rucker, colored sophomore sprinter at the University of Southern California, was reported to be seriously ill at his home in Santa Monica yesterday, as the result of a relapse following an accident at his Los Angeles residence.

Rucker was in the postoffice during the recent Christmas holidays and told his landlady that he was very tired, when he retired to his room Saturday night. Sunday night, when Rucker had not appeared, the landlady investigated, and found the youth fallen, unconscious, in a cramped position, with a severe blow on the left side of his head, where, apparently, he had fallen into a door sill. A bloodstain had been burning, and the roomster found the room.

Rucker was found to be almost entirely paralyzed in his left arm and only recently was able to move his left leg, and fingers on his left hand. He apparently was recovering slowly, but relief was not expected. He was removed to the home of his parents in Santa Monica, Dean Cromwell, coach of the Trojan track team, declared yesterday that even if Rucker recovered before next semester, he probably would be too weak to report for track this season. Rucker runs the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Sauer is rated as one of the very best grapplers of his weight in the country. Neither Lewis nor Gus Sonnenberg would have anything to do with Sauer when they were champion. Sauer is a fast, punishing wrestler and well liked by the local fans. His cradle-hold has been used nearly every mat star he has met since he returned to the game more than a year ago.

The red-headed Ohio boy has always displayed plenty of action in every match he has taken part in here. As Sauer is the same type of wrestler, there will be plenty of mat fireworks when they come together.

KANO YOSHIMI, 140-pound Japanese jiu-jitsu expert, and Jack Roller, 210-pounder, will meet in the opener. The bout will be divided into four periods of five minutes each, with a minute's rest between each period. Roller is favored to beat the jacket expert.

AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

NEW INDUSTRY PENDING AT PORT

Loading Terminal Sought by Naturaline Company

Re-refining of Gasoline and Exportation Planned

Monthly Output at Start Set at 3,000,000 Gallons

Establishment of a new industry at Los Angeles Harbor in the re-refining of high-test or "casing-head" gasoline, and export of the product to Europe and the Orient, was forecast yesterday when the Naturaline Company, America's largest re-refining company, made request to the Board of Harbor Commissioners for loading terminal facilities at Berth 128, in the West Basin. Favorable action on the proposed plan is expected to be made by the Harbor Board at today's meeting.

E. I. Hanlon, president of the company, in a letter to the Harbor Board, said that the company will at the beginning of operations export 3,000,000 gallons of gasoline monthly and that it will receive from the producing areas a minimum of ten cars of gasoline daily. In its request to the board, the company explains that it would construct a spur track and loading racks on the 1.8 acre tract desired, but that its export gasoline would be loaded into tankers from the loading terminal of the Western Oil and Refining Company.

It is learned from an authoritative source that the Naturaline Company has recently obtained an option on a site in the port area for construction of a refinery to handle its gasoline products.

Gasoline and kerosene export has in the past several years become an important link in Los Angeles Harbor's foreign trade. Approximately 400,000 cases of gasoline and kerosene are shipped out to the Orient and the Antipodes from the port each month, while in addition more than 350,000 barrels of bulk gasoline is exported each month to widespread foreign markets.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the H-10 Water Taxi Company, held yesterday at San Pedro, elected directors for 1929: Robert W. Benson, secretary and general manager; E. W. Bartlett, C. R. Bartlett, J. H. Bartlett, and W. J. Truscott. The company this year will add several diesel-driven craft to its fleet of eighteen gasolines and launch service as well as to the battle fleet and merchant ships.

Unusual proof of the rapid growth of Los Angeles' new direct express freight service to the East Indies, recently established by the Java-Pacific Line, was offered yesterday in the diversified cargo of 220 tons shipped to the port, as it is also for his skipper, Capt. J. H. Hollander, who has served Java-Pacific for twenty-two years.

Included in the Slantier's cargo for Los Angeles discharge are 3200 cases of raw rubber, 1200 cases of copra, 2000 cases of copra meal, 450 tons of manioc meal, from Samarang; 2500 bags of coffee, from Samarang; in addition to shipments of rubber, copra and gum copra. Also, she is discharging her consignments of tobacco, hemp and coffee for trans-shipment to Baltimore, New York and New Orleans.

The Slantier, a twelve-knot ship of 11,400 deadweight tons, will be followed here on February 1 by her sister ship, the "Hendrik Fohrer," commanded by Capt. Hendrik Fohrer.

General cargo traffic at the port during 1928 enjoyed a tonnage increase of more than 40 per cent. It was indicated yesterday by the director of the port, Mr. J. H. Hollander, and general manager of the port, in compilation of revenues for 1928 over municipally owned docks.

Mr. Hollander pointed out that in November, last, 229,453 tons of general cargo were handled, as against 165,771 tons for November, 1927, an increase of 38.6 per cent. The above figures are exclusive of oil outward shipments and inward cargo receipts, both of which show increases for the year just closed. A factor resulting in the heavy increase in the general cargo receipts is the growing influx of domestic, seamless steel pipe, now being manufactured for the first time in this country by an eastern steel concern, and shipped here for oil fields use by the manufacturer's own line of steamers. Previously, practically all steel pipe was imported from Europe and was thus forced to pass through bonded storage yards, privately owned.

Capt. Robert Judson will bring the Panama-Mail liner Colombia in from New York via Havre and Cape Cod, this morning in completion of her fifty-seventh successive voyage in the intercoastal service. Prominent among her passengers are W. P. Eastman, Chicago attorney, and Mrs. Eastman; Sven Anderson, general manager of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation during the World War construction period; Edward R. Grinnell, Lincoln (Nebr.) manufacturer, and Mrs. Grinnell, globe trotter, en route back to her home in India.

Al Simmons, a seaman aboard the "Hendrik Fohrer," was yesterday taken to the hospital for treatment of a severe case of pneumonia.

"My dear, the really wonderful thing about radio is that it has done away with the fatigue incident to applause."

Joshua Little

BY LEE SHIPPEY

Baldheads haven't a great deal to be thankful for, but it isn't often that the life of one of 'em hangs by a hair.

Francis: How did that Chicago woman find her husband?
Georgia: She sent a tracer bullet after him.

Jack Spratt ate meat and fat;
His wife pecked at the lean
To make her hefty figure flat.
You girls know what I mean.

The image shows a close-up of an open, antique book. The pages are dark, heavily stained, and discolored, with a dense, handwritten text in a cursive script. The text is written in a dark ink, and the paper appears aged and worn. The binding of the book is visible in the center crease, showing the stitching and the edges of the pages. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript or a collection of letters, possibly from the 17th century, given the style of the handwriting and the condition of the paper.
